Look at the stars.
They're the same stars as last week,
last year,
some as when we were kids.

Hall
Administration

The academic year 2011/2012 has been a great year for Eusoff.

This year's welcome of our new intake of freshmen as well as our returning seniors to the Hall in July 2011 started with a range of interesting activities including safety and wellness talks to exploring campus facilities in the Treasure Hunt, thanks to the Programme Team of our Eusoff Hall Orientation Committee (EHOC). Not to be outdone, our Flag Team put in a great effort and raised a total of $34,000 on the NUS Flag Day. For the first time ever in the history of the Halls of Residence, as approved by OSA and NUSSU, none of the Halls were competing with each other during Rag Day which was held off-campus at the Marina Bay Promontory in conjunction with the National Day Parade.

Instead halls were paired to build a combined float. Due to proximity and operational convenience, Eusoff Hall was partnered with our neighbouring Temasek Hall to build a combined float and leverage on each other's strength. It was thrilling that our combined spectacular float was selected to participate in the increasingly international Chingay Parade 2012. I am glad that Eusoff Hall residents have formed a refreshingly wonderful camaraderie with Temasek Hall in both activities, notwithstanding our traditional rivalry in the sporting arena.

In the cultural scene, once again Eusoff Hall Dance Production has done us proud when they staged a superb performance which received rave reviews from invited guests including the Guest of Honour, Mr Desmond Lee Ti-Seng, Honourable Member of Parliament (Jurong GRC). This year, DP incorporated a new element in its production with the involvement of the A Cappella group as part of its performance. Our other cultural committees were also active in their events with Choir performing at the Amplitude and Eusoff Bands at the annual Rockfest.

In the sports arena, our sportsmen and sportswomen once again has done us proud to clinch the Dean of Students' Challenge Trophy for Overall IHG Champions at the Inter-Hall Games 2011/12 and the Men's Championship Trophy, with our Ladies, in the overall second place. With this win, Eusoff Hall has won Men's Championship for seven consecutive years (2006-2012) and Overall IHG Championship for five consecutive years (2008-2012).

In community service, Eusoffians continue their noble cause in helping the less fortunate through the Eusoff Voluntary Corps and Eusoff Expedition. I applaud members of EVC who are so committed and dedicated to their weekly visit to the elderly folks in the Chin Swee Road and providing tuition to the kids at the Salvation Army. At the international level, our Eusoff Expedition Team continued their journey to Cambodia for a seventh time to carry out their "Project Kaleidoscope" which built sanitation facilities and secured water supply for the villagers of Prey Onquin Village of Prey Veng Province, Cambodia. I am very proud and happy that their unstinting selfless commitment towards community work was recognized when both our Eusoff Voluntary Corps and Eusoff Expeditions won the NUS Student Achievement Award 2012. Our very own Lynette Tan, Vice President of JCRC clinched the individual trophy for her distinguished personal accomplishments with Sports Director Teo Jia Kai, receiving a certificate for his commendable achievements, and the overall JCRC of 2010/11 receiving due recognition as well for Rag and Flag. It was certainly a big sweep of awards at the grand Award Ceremony held at the UCC.

Our ties with our very own Eusoff Alumni Association was regularly renewed, as they had been very active. Collaborative programmes with the Hall such as “Eusoff Connect” and “Eusoff All Stars!” were organized with great enthusiasm. I hope to see this trend continues, with more such activities will be organised in future. The new facilities built under the umbrella of a new Residential Life and Alumni Centre at Level 2 of the communal block should certainly give a big boost to this growing endeavour to forge ever stronger ties with our residents who have left us for the working world.

Master's Message

2011/2012 has indeed been a great year for all of us and we should all be proud of the achievements made throughout the year. I wish to take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation to all Eusoffians, JCRC, SCRC and Alumni for their contribution, support and dedication to make this another great year for our great Hall. I wish to thank Editor, Tan Yuh Ting and her Publication Committee for their fine effort in capturing these hall activities and achievements in this Year Book.

“The academic year
2011/2012 has been a great year for Eusoff.”

A/Prof Tan Tin Wee
Master, Eusoff Hall

Afternote: Not to be outdone by our students, SCRC member, Adjunct Assistant Professor Victor Tong Joo Chuan did us proud by being nominated as a Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum in Davos. Our Master, being chair of the SCRC, and former PhD supervisor of Dr Tong, responded swiftly, with his induction by the Internet Society during the Global INET conference in Geneva in April 2012, to the Inaugural Internet Hall of Fame for his role as a Global Connector and for his founding contribution to the internationalization of Internet Domain Names (IDNs), an honour shared with Internet luminaries such as Vint Cerf, Sir Tim Berners-Lee, inventor of the web, and Al Gore, among others.

Eusoff Expedition 2010/2011

"Project Kaleidoscope"

9 May to 26 May 2011

The Eusoff Expedition Team 2010/2011 has successfully carried out their "Project Kaleidoscope" at Village Prey Onquin, Prey Veng Province, Cambodia from 9 May to 26 May 2011. Their mission this year was to build sanitation facilities for the villagers. Our team also taught a conversational English syllabus for the school children in the Prey Onguin Primary School.

Prior to the visit, the Team collaborated a Cultural exchange project with the student of the Maha Bodhi School, Singapore to design and paint friendship t-shirts for the Cambodian schoolchildren.

This is the seventh consecutive year that Eusoff Hall embarked in the annual trip to Cambodia following six successful expeditions, Project Barefoot (Chay Tnal Village, May 2005), Project Patchwork (Chan Village, May 2006), Project D.A.Y.S ~ Do All You Should (Chan Village, May 2007), Project Heartrock (Kampong Sleang, May 2008), Project Hopscotch (Kampong Sleang, May 2009) and Project Sandcastle (Ang Kuth Village, May 2010).

Eusoff Hall Exposure Camp

25 to 27 May 2011

The Eusoff Exposure Camp, organised by the Eusoff Hall Orientation Committee was held from 25th May to 27th May 2011. About 50 freshmen participated in the 3 day-2 night camp. The objective was to allow prospective freshmen (both local and international students) to experience a taste of Hall life and learn about the Hall's culture before they make a decision on which hall to apply for. Camp activities include sports related games, talks on Hall life and activities, talentime and BBQ dinner. A Welcome Reception hosted by Master and SCRC was held where they had the opportunity to talk and mingle with the participants.

Eusoff Hall Orientation Committee 2011

A series of interesting activities including safety and wellness talks to exploring campus facilities in the Treasure Hunt were organised to welcome the new intake of residents during Orientation. Our Programme Team has done a great job carrying out the Orientation programme smoothly and in compliance with the OSA's guidelines.

While the Orientation was a voluntary basis, the Hall strongly encouraged all Eusoffians to participate either for Eusoff Hall or their respective faculties for the Flag Day on 3 August 2011 to help NUS to raise funds for the needy. A total of $34,000 was by Eusoffians on the NUS Flag Day.

For Rag, this year, the Halls of Residence, as approved by OSA and NUSSU were not competing with each other during the Rag Day which was held off-campus at the Marina Bay Promontory in conjunction with the National Day Parade. Instead two halls were united to build a combined float to showcase the NUS branding. Eusoff Hall has partnered with Temasek Hall based on proximity and operational convenience to build a combined float and leverage on each other's strength. Both Eusoff and Temasek Halls residents had a great time working closely together building yet another outstanding float and performing a spectacular joint performance at the NUS Rag Day.

Welcome & Commencement Formal Dinner 2011

2 Aug 2011

The Welcome and Commencement Formal Dinner was held on Tuesday, 2 August 2011 from 7 pm to 9 pm in Eusoff Hall. The Formal Dinner was a combination of two special occasions, firstly to welcome our residents at the beginning of the academic year as per tradition every year and, secondly to celebrate the convocation of newly graduated Eusoffians. The Dinner was attended by members of our Senior Common Room Committee (SCRC) and Junior Common Room Committee (JCRC), and Eusoff graduands of Class 2011. Special guests for the evening were Professor Mary Tan, Professor of Law, Chair, Graduate IP Programs, Director, Franklin Pierce Centre for IP University of New Hampshire School of Law, Mr Tan Ying Hsien who representing his mother, Dr Nalla Tan, Principal of Eusoff College (1967-1972) and Dr Mark Emmanuel, former Resident Fellow of Eusoff Hall. The programme for the evening included a presentation of special certificates to our Eusoff College Medal 2011 finalists and souvenirs to our graduands.

Eusoff Alumni' ALL-Stars!

24 March 2012

Bonjour Eusoff!

Warmest greetings from the Eusoff Alumni Association! It has been a well 23 years since the alumni association was first established in 1988 by a group of Eusoffian ladies, all in the spirit of "We want to grow the Eusoff family" spearheaded by Mrs Tan Chee Kiow, Mrs Shirley Loo-Lim, Mrs Elsie Foh, Dr Violet Phang and Ms Lim Bee Lum.

Riding on that rising tide, the newly elected Executive Committee (Allan, Wayne, Joshua, Soppia, Jit Vern, Vijay, Edwin, Charmaine & Joon Kit) had since took the baton from Ms Wong Sheau Yann and her team in 2011. Like any of our predecessors, we strive to promote a common platform for all Eusoffians to interact and continue to strengthen the ties we had built from our Hall days. The team had since organized 2 events in 2012.

In line with our goal to bridge the link between the alumni group and Hall residents, Eusoff Connect was held on 18th Feb to provide a platform for alumni to share their working experiences and career advises with current Hall residents. Many thanks to our key speakers (Nipuna, Loraine & Martin) and the alumni panel for spending time and effort to make this event a success. The words shared had definitely motivated the participants to follow their passion and pursue a career of their dreams. More importantly, we hope that the event served as a guide to graduating Eusoffians as they look forward to transit into a new phase of life.

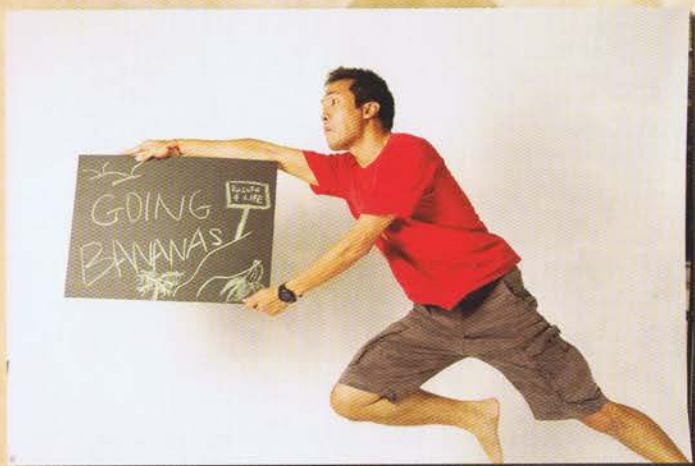

Further on, the Eusoff All-Stars! was held on 24th Mar with an objective to relive the golden moments of our Hall days. An online voting session was rolled-out for Eusoffians to vote for the best Eusoff moments in the past 5 years. It was a wonderful event where we flipped open the history page and celebrated the most shining moments of Eusoff! To add icing to the cake, the Eusoff All-Stars! was held in conjunction with Eusoff Fiesta. All in all, the Eusoff All-Stars! Had been great in bringing back the alumni to reconnect and to get involved once again with the latest happenings in Hall.

It has been a long journey for Eusoff Alumni Association to reach it's current state today thanks to the great efforts being put in by the past executive committee and the big hearted support from the alumni and members of Eusoff Hall. Nonetheless, the team believes there is more room for the alumni association to grow and serve the needs of every Eusoffian.

As the saying goes "Once a Eusoffian; Always a Eusoffian". Graduating from Hall does not mean the end to our days in Eusoff, it is a start of a new journey in the life of each Eusoffian. The Eusoff Alumni Association congratulates all graduating Eusoffians and we hope that the Eusoff spirit of Excellence and Harmony stays in you as it propels you to new successes in life.

We look forward to welcome you as we continue our ride as one family of Eusoff.

Designed to complement the various career fairs held during the second semester, this session explored some commonly known careers in greater detail. The invited speakers were young working Eusoffians Alumni who took time off from their busy schedules to share and network with juniors at their alma mater.

With the information provided, we hope that our residents would be able to make more informed decision on their preferred career paths. ReLAC and Eusoff Alumni Association will continue to organise more of such programmes in future.

HALL INITIATIVES

Eusoff Hall's Residential Learning and Training Programme

Eusoff Hall has established a Residential Learning and Training Programme which is incorporated to upgrade our current Hall Enrichment Programme and to complement the various yearly cycle of student activities. Our central aims in implementing the Eusoff Hall Residential Learning and Training Programme are to create learning, training and leadership programmes for residents to enhance their intellectual vigour, self-confidence, and well-rounded development besides inculcating a community spirit amongst residents. These visions are in line with the legacy of a strong culture of excellence, professionalism, and intellectualism at Eusoff Hall.

The Eusoff Hall's Residential Learning and Training Programme is incorporated using the OSA's Student Development Framework whereby the learning objectives, learning outcomes and evaluations of learning programmes are captured and reflected. The Learning and Training Programme is coordinated by a team of 3 staff who are housed at the Residential Learning and Alumni Centre located in Level 2 of the Communal Block.

The Residential Life & Alumni Centre (ReLAC) is an initiative of Eusoff Hall with the mission to focus on personal development and learning programmes to enhance Eusoffians and Alumni life skills. The objective of such programmes is to equip Eusoffians with adequate skills to enable them to plug into society when they leave NUS. As acquiring skills is a life-long learning, the centre will also extend its learning to Eusoff alumni to enable them to continuously upgrade their interest and skills in society.

The renovation of the centre has been completed in October 2011. The ReLAC team is now operating in the newly renovated office located on the 2nd floor of Eusoff Hall Communal Block, together with a group of student leaders and Eusoff Alumni Association whom they are working closely with.

Tribute to Mr Steven Mok Chun Weng

After twenty four years of service, Mr Steven Mok Chun Weng has finally called it a day on 29 February 2012 as the Hall Manager of Eusoff Hall. Mr Mok as he is fondly known was the founding manager when Eusoff Hall started operations in 1988.

Over the years, Mr Mok helped to establish the hall office management system and managed the day to day running of the hall efficiently. He has survived many changes in the University system that have taken place such as the migration of the Hostel Management System to the University Hostel Management System, from manual to online processing of invoices and payment and many others. Mr Mok has also seen many generations of Eusoffians through their residency in Eusoff Hall and whom some of them have become very successful such as Mr Gregory Vijayendran, Senior Partner of Rajah & Tan, Mr Colin Ong, Chairman of Advisors' Clique and many more, and almost all of them would have come in contact with Mr Mok in one way or another. His cool and quiet demeanor has made it easier for Eusoffians to approach him for help.

While we are saddened to let him go, we understand that he is up to something new which is more interesting and challenging. Well done Mr Mok. We wish nothing but the very best for you in your future endeavors.

Message from the Editor

Tan Yuh Ting

Hi, all.

You holding this book would have signified the passing of another year in Eusoff Hall – the end of one season of IHG, DP, hall breakfasts and dinners, an entire year of getting to know hall people, being committed to hall activities and of course, getting a year older. Reading this book now at this very moment would also mean the beginning of a new AY in Eusoff Hall – which means, new friends are being made and the hall spirit (be it culturally or athletically) is being passed on from seniors to freshmen.

I once had a wise teacher that said, “You are not supposed to see how hard one works. Imagine the gracefulness of a swan waddling through the lake; you don’t see the vigorous paddling of its flippers, you’re not supposed to see them”. This is the apt description on the making of Eusoff Yearbook 11/12. I will not delve into the obstacles met. What’s important is that we made it through. We survived. And you are looking at the end product right now. My team of writers and designers had worked hard through out the entire year to come up with this (hopefully satisfactory) yearbook in order to commemorate Eusoff Hall’s ups and downs. I apologize on behalf of the Publications Committee if any of us had annoyed you all by the incessant pestering for write-ups and information. We tried our very best to preserve the very essence that makes Eusoff, Eusoff and that makes you, a Eusoffian in this year’s edition. The theme of this year’s yearbook is simple; the colours reflect the vibrancy of hall life and the splatter of paints on the front cover is a reflection of all 6 halls living within the same NUS community.

I would like to give special thanks to Alston Yap, Joshua Ng and Prof. Goh for their enduring guidances and advices throughout the entire journey. Without them, the printing of this yearbook would not have been possible. Also, I thank Master for his perpetuating presence in this community which has help us morph into distinguishable individuals that will eventually serve a bigger community in the real, adult world. Last but not least, I thank my team of writers and designers for their persevering commitment in this committee – always saying ‘yes’ to whatever I ask of them regardless of task and time. You all made this work, truly.

The past one year in Eusoff Hall had been a great one. I hope you guys enjoyed it as much as I did. Now, we create new legends. Let the semester and the new academic year begin!

Regards,
Yuh Ting.

BRYAN WONG

Dear Eusoffians,

Writing this yearbook also means that my term as the 24th JCRC President is coming to an end, and this feeling is a bittersweet one.

For myself personally, I dapped into many events that I never imagined myself doing. For example, the Chingay experience for me was a fresh yet exciting one. It started off with the hard work of the Ragers and subsequently the Chingay committee. I can proudly say we were all performing on the Grandest Stage of Asia.

Next, being heavily involved in IHG planning was yet another sleepless task for me and Ivan. Every night, we worry. But yet, every day we see our sportsmen fighting hard on the courts and our supporters decked in a sea of yellow. What really touched me was the final day of the IHG Season whereby it was a make or break day for Eusoff's season and our trackers performed admirably by winning 4 out of 5 events to clinch the title for us. There I saw sea of yellow supporters, all whom cheered their hearts out for every runner. It was then I knew Eusoff really united.

Our own internal Dance Production, Family3 was a resounding success as well as many Eusoffians took the night off IHG to watch our very own friends staged a production of the highest quality. That being said, I will like to take this opportunity to thank a few group of people for their unwavering support during my term, so that I can achieve what I had bent on doing from the start: A Home Away from Home.

Firstly, I would like to thank the 24th JCRC for sticking by me through the term and enduring all my incessant nonsense during meetings. Thank you all for the hard work you put in individually into your portfolios and reassuring me that everything is okay.

Thank you Cheryl, for being so meticulous with the hall finances, it is never easy dealing with money and for making my job so easy by making sure everything is okay.

Thank You Ankur, for your dedication to the community service groups and for always ensuring deadlines are met.

Thank You Syak, for taking up the post of Student Affairs and for being so receptive to feedbacks and for always looking at things so positively and for bringing smiles to our meeting.

Thank You Sarah, for your love of the Performing Arts Group and for making sure all of them get the best of the professional coaching and also for them to have enough exposure so that our performing arts talents can bring their performance to another level.

Thank You Melvin, for running as Vice President after being in JCRC before. It is never easy to juggle between Architecture and JCRC but you did it so seamlessly and with it bring much experience and poise to the team.

Thank You Alston, for willing to take up the role despite knowing your commitment as the Rag and Chingay Head. You were a source of inspiration for me personally and was a big plus point for the team with your constructive comments and upmost efficiency.

Thank You Valencia, for being the most “on-the ball” and for always scolding me so that I will meet the deadlines. You are the backbone of this team and everything stemmed for you. I have absolutely no regrets approaching you to run for this position. Best secretary ever.

Thank You Ivan, the last addition to this team for taking up the post so daunting, so burdened and heavy on expectations but you handled the pressure so well and yes we did it against all odds as the Overall Champion of IHG 11/12. WOOHOO!

Last but not least, the most important of them all, Lynette Tan Su Ping. Oh Lynette, what would I have done without you. You are really the secret behind any success we have had in this JCRC. Listening to my countless rants and problems, doing work that I don't dare to give anyone. You are really the unsung hero of this team. I don't know what this team would be like without you, you are really like a chilli padi, small but yet packed with so much power and energy. Thank You for everything.

Secondly, I would like to thank the SCRC in particular Master, for your unwavering support and guidance. The confidence you had in me was reassuring and I must say I had learnt a lot from you as well which would definitely be useful to me when I leave hall in the future. Also, I would like to thank the Hall Office Staff, for acceding to my requests and for always trying to help so that my job is easier. In particular, I will like to take this opportunity to thank Ms Rashidah for always listening to me and for always providing me solutions to the countless problems you have.

Last but not least, I will like to thank Eusoff Seniors and Committee Heads for being there and for helping to lead your committees. The passion and leadership all of you demonstrated were the key to the many success the Hall had in this year. I really love the dedication that some of the seniors such as Wai Hong, Hon Chan, Kenny, Keevin, and many others around hall have. In particular, I will like to thank 2 seniors for all the help that you have rendered to me, encouraging me to be president and for always giving me guidance throughout my term. Renji and Jiakai, thank you so much. Also, I made many good friends who always egged me to step out and for being my buddies and for always standing by my side. Shaun Heng, Malcolm and Dennis, you guys are the best neighbors anyone could ever ask for. Melissa, Muhaina, Bertilla, Pauline, Wantian, Twan, Galvin, Chin Ping, Xianglong, Wenqiang and many others, same goes to all of you, Friends forever.

To all Eusoffians, it is my honor to have served you. Thanks for being my friends, my comrades as we built on the camaraderie and produce yet another year of excellence. I hope amidst all this events, we made many friends who will go stand by us forever. Words cannot express the gratitude I have to all the residents in Eusoff Hall. It has been my honor to stay and breathe the same air as all of you and I wish all of you all the best in your future endeavors.

Aristotle once said, “Yellow- coloured objects appeared to be golden”

Thank You Eusoff.

We are Golden.

Best regards,

MELVIN LEW

WE DID IT AGAIN!

Eusoff, stand tall, stand proud, because we've not only champion-ed IHG again this year, we've also had an awesome DP, a fantabulous Chingay, an impressive Rag performance, a wonderful Fiesta, and not to forget all the other hall events on (and off) the calendar that have done us so proud and so well, again this year.

For all the effort put in and fantastic outcomes, every Eusoffian should be proud to be Eusoffian!

Being my third year in hall, and second year on the JCRC, the experience has been indescribable.

Being the third year, and a little jaded at the beginning, I decided to take on something new, something completely out of my comfort zone, so for the first time, I was involved in Chingay, and this brought me new perspectives towards the culture and practices of the Chingay & Rag teams. It's exciting, when you grow from someone being rooted to the ground, with 2 left feet, to someone jumping and screaming, in shin-deep water, in front of thousands of spectators. The sense of pride and accomplishment are feelings that cannot be described in words, so for all that, thanks to Alston and his team for giving us the opportunity to be involved in something so magnificent.

On the JCRC front, things went very well this year, largely in part due to Bryan's foresight, planning, management and PR skills. If I could give Bryan a gold medal in leading the hall, I would!

So here is one to you, Bryan!

To Bryan, Lynette, Sarah, Ivan, Ankur, Val, Cheryl, Syak and Alston, you guys have been so great this entire year.

We didn't have a single squabble or disagreement, everything was so well executed and well planned from the very beginning, communication was at its best, it's hard to imagine we're only doing it for the first time all together.

For your hard work, dedication and commitment, despite facing impossible odds from all sources, and being a backstage crew with no awards, no fame, (and no pay, haha), this is to the 24th JCRC, cheers!

A year has just ended, and an exciting and brand new one is about to begin, soon.

Looking forward to seeing everyone again, hard at work, in the year to come!

EUSOFF TO THE FORE!!!

LYNETTE TAN SU PING

Dear Eusoffians,

Being the vice president is one of the many great experiences that I have had in Eusoff Hall. I can still remember that fear and apprehension in me when I was first asked to consider the position of vice president. I was honestly worried that I will not be able to perform up to expectations. But looking back, I am glad and honored to be part of the 24th JCRC which not only consisted of a group of student leaders but also a group of friends whom I shared joy and laughter with. As Bryan mentioned during his rally, his motto was to create a "Home away from Home". We firmly believed in this too and also wanted to achieve his motto. Thus, we had many great plans to make the hall experience in Eusoff an enjoyable one, so that freshmen will continue to stay on after their first year. Of course, the journey was not always smooth sailing for us, but I thank all of you for believing in the 24th JCRC. Special thanks to Bryan for always supporting me, and for never once losing faith in me.

Perhaps the highlight of our term was the visit by student leaders from Lady Ho Tung Hall from Hong Kong University (HKU) where they stayed in Eusoff Hall for 4 days 3 nights. Together with a few other JCRC members, we brought them around Singapore and had friendly exchanges about our hall system. We even had a floorball clinic session for them which they absolutely enjoyed! This student exchange made us learn a lot about their culture in HKU and of course, they were truly impressed by the amount of hall activities we had, to be able to stage a dance production and travel to Cambodia for community service! Their friendly dispositions and excitement over the different delicacies made that 4 days with them an unforgettable experience for me.

And now, looking back at the 3 years that I have spent in Eusoff Hall, I can only say one thing, that my blood runs yellow. That the best part of my university life is the fact that I joined Eusoff hall and had the opportunity to join all the different activities like IHG, Rag, Chingay, DP and Expeditions. The friendships that I forged here and the memories are going to last a lifetime. So Eusoffians, don't ever be afraid to step out of your comfort zone. Being in hall is the best time to try out anything that you never expect yourself to, from dance to sports and even community service! It will definitely be an experience you will not regret!

ARCHIVES

Archives had always been a small committee – once having only 2 members. Now, Archives holds a committee size of 9. Headed by Tan Chong Ming this year, the committee has contributed much to the Hall within a short period of time.

They have helped in the publicity of both the Inter-Hall Games and Dance Production. Putting together the past 5 years of archival materials, the committee showcased their effort in the dining hall and also at the University Cultural Centre on Dance Production day. Through their showcase, Eusoffians, especially the younger batches are kept informed about Eusoff's past glorious and celebratory moments.

Through Archives, Eusoff's past history will be preserved and showcased to future generations of Eusoffians.

AUDITORS

Few would know who the auditors are. They may not be seen working around the hall but many would recognize that their role in the hall is crucial.

Twice every year, the auditors make routine inventory checks for every committee and cultural groups. The first will be carried out at the start of every year, shortly after the committee is formed. This first check ensures the continuity of the inventory of the committee, that the equipment they are supposed to have actually is in place. The second check, which occurs at the end of every Academic Year ensures that the old inventory is maintained and identifies equipment to be condemned.

Headed by Andrew Yeo and Keevin Cheng this year, the team ensured that the inventories in Hall are well accounted for. The auditing team ensures the smooth flow and continuity of committees in Eusoff year after year.

SECRETARIAT

Headed by Chathurani (Chaths) and Neranja, the secretariat is in charge of the collection of minutes and after-activity evaluations. Their job is tedious but the members understand that documentation is important for the handing over of committees at the start and end of every year.

CHERYL NIO

“The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.”

Lao Tzu (c 604 bc - c 531 bc)

My journey with the rest of the 24th JCRC began nearly 11 months ago when I decided to step up and run for this position. Since then, we have all experienced highs and lows, but at the end of the day, I'm sure that all of us will agree that we do not regret taking that 1st step.

No different from any other year, my term as FD has been wrought with difficulties and complications. From the new rules implemented and new funds tapped on to the little details that needed paying attention to, I was sometimes near to tears as I spent many a night burning midnight oil. Here, I would like to remember the wonderful members of my Finance Committee as well as all the committee heads and treasurers for being so wonderful in co-operating with my requests. Although probably some of you thought me to be a nuisance for chasing after you time and again for a signature here and an explanation there, a revision here and an amendment there, I thank you for doing it with nary a frown on your face.

As my “journey of a thousand miles” reaches its thousandth mile and the position changes hands to someone taking their 1st step, I think back of what I have gone through as I write this. The road taken was by no means smooth, but one thing is for certain: I do not regret that 1st step that I took nearly a year ago.

I leave you with this:

*“May your trails be crooked, winding, lonesome, dangerous, leading to the most amazing view.
May your mountains rise into and above the clouds.”*

24TH JCRC Student Affairs Director (11/12)

NURUL SYAKINAH SAHAK

Being in the 24th JCRC has certainly been an enriching experience. I have learnt a lot of new things that I believe would not be able to be taught elsewhere. From the day-to-day running of the hall, the daily newspapers delivery to the sorting of the mails, the hall was dependent on my job as the Student Affairs Director.

This Academic Year, I embarked on a new initiative, replacing the weekly special supplement at dinner with a monthly Special Supper that is held at the end of each month. This was done after receiving feedback from Eusoffians regarding the weaknesses of the weekly special. The decision to implement the monthly hall supper was based on my rationale that there is not one event that could bond EUsuffians from all kinds of background together. The suppers that were usually held were mostly confined to the blocks or the respective committees. From the first 2 suppers that were held, the response seemed good and it is hoped that the incoming Student Affairs Director will be able to carry on this initiative.

Now I would like to thank a few people who have helped me in my duties as the Student Affairs Director. Firstly I would like to thank the 24th JCRC, -especially Bryan- for their undying support and encouragement. They made going through all the downs worth it. I would also like to thank Nathalie, my vice head for the Student Affairs Committee for her endless help in setting the things that the committee had to do. Also, thank you Maryann for managing the International Relations Committee perfectly.

Regards,

Syakinah

24TH JCRC Performing Arts Director (11/12)

SARAH TAN YA LING

Dear Eusoffians,

It has been my honor to be part of the 24th JCRC and to be able to serve the hall and each and every one of you. The academic year 2011/2012 has been extraordinarily eventful for all of us, crazily taxing yet rewarding at the same time. And I guess this is what gets us going, doing all the things we do year after year.

Firstly I would like to thank everyone in the 24th JCRC for believing in me and encouraging me. I recall that my decision to run for Performing Arts Director was a fairly last minute one, and I was very worried as I was left with really big shoes to fill. However looking back right now, I have never regretted that decision and I am very blessed to have Bryan, Lynette, Melvin, Alston, Ankur, Cheryl, Valencia, Syak and Ivan with me. Thank you guys for all the irreplaceable moments we shared together: performing for Culture Night and Chingay, supporting each other at IHG and DP, stepping out of our comfort zone together as a team. I feel that Bryan could not have put together a more united team. And this is what makes us a family, by being united as one, having 'a Home away from Home' as Bryan envisioned.

My vision for the culture scene in Eusoff was to increase our appreciation for our undiscovered talents and to showcase their gifts beyond the boundaries of hall. Being a fairly new wing in the culture scene in Eusoff, EH Acappella has been incredibly outstanding. All the participating Acappella groups made it through to the finals of YOUth Got Talent, an external vocal group competition organized by The People's Association. Two groups managed to clinch the Champion and 1st Runner Up title for the Vocal Group, open category. This milestone has definitely brought pride and glory to the hall and ignited the enthusiasm of all the members to achieve more. Thank you Pamela for your hard work and dedication towards the committee, and special thanks to the previous Acappella heads Handy and Xian You for their guidance and support. All of you have the potential to be greater, and I am so proud of you all!

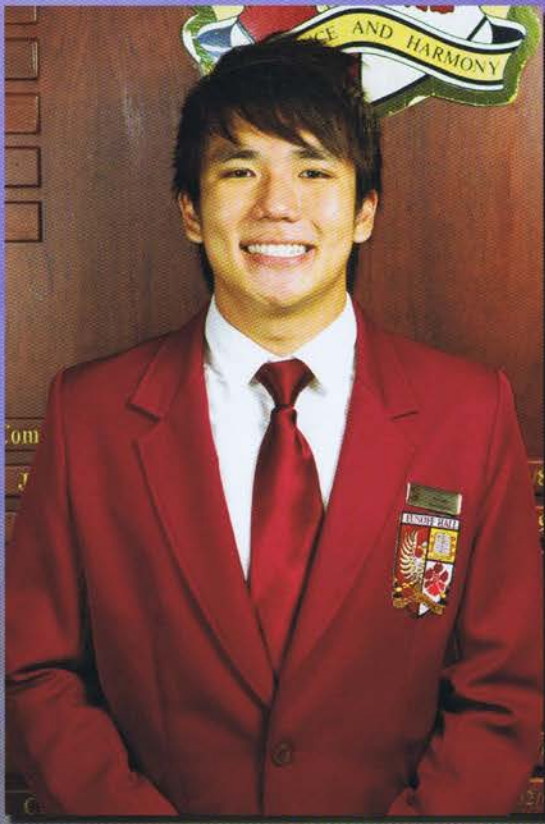

I would also like to highlight the ingenious initiative and collaboration between Eusoffworks, Audioworks and Eusoff Band on their project of producing our very own Youtube music videos to infiltrate the online platform and reach out to greater audience other than just our hall residents. Such partnership amongst committees should be encouraged; thank you Ivan, Simon and David for your efforts and making this happen. I hope that this will be passed on to the younger batches to come!

To all the culture group members, thank you for sharing your talents with us and may all of you continue to grow and develop your endowment. To all my culture group heads: Pamela, David, Maryann, Xian You, Yan Xin, Lakshmi, and Victor, I am grateful to have all of you stepping up to lead your respective groups with unwavering commitment, undying passion and great vision. It has been my privilege having you all along with me during my term. To all residents in Eusoff, thank you for your support throughout the year for the culture scene and may Eusoff Hall continue her legacy to be a great hall of excellence.

Yours truly,

Sarah Tan Ya Ling

IVAN NGO

SMC, the Sports Management Committee was in charge of one of the main events this year, the Inter-Hall Games of 11/12.

Despite a slow start to garner members and sub committee heads, SMC was able to function adequately with the support of the hall residents.

From the design of the jerseys to the support of our sportsmen and women with logistics, drinks and first aid attention, our SMC was involved in every aspect of IHG which Eusoff Hall eventually emerged champions.

Holding events such as the opening and closing ceremonies of this year's IHG helped to prepare and eventually provide a commemorative start and close to the Inter-Hall Games. The annual Sportsmen Bonding event also allowed for Eusoff sportsmen and women to know each other outside of their core sports.

Co-headed by Darren Twan and Melissa Chan, SMC was able to keep up to basic standards in terms of its quality of work and able to allow sportsmen and women to focus on their sports in IHG, as well as provide information for the rest of the residents to support them in their matches and games.

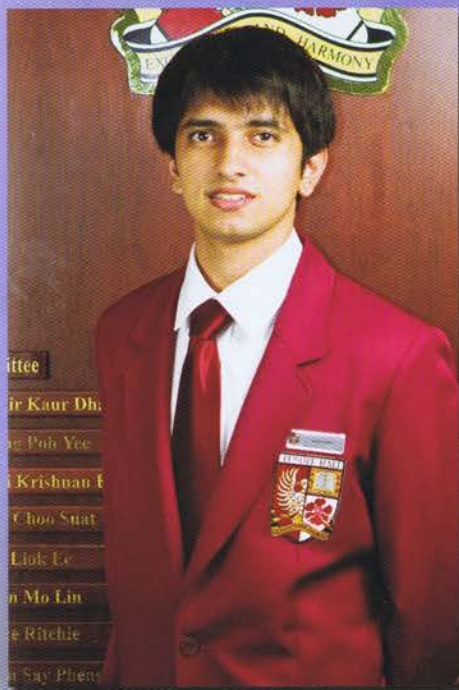

Added with the task of managing captains as well as team managers, Darren and Melissa were able to sign off a successful IHG season with Eusoff Hall coming away with the 5th overall Champion title and the 7th Men's Champion title.

ANKUR VOHRA

Four years ago I visited Eusoff for the first time, to see my sister, curious about her new home. She told me all about the many residents of Eusoff and how they represented the hall proudly in sports, the arts and served the community with distinction. It was 23rd July 2010 when I finally had the opportunity to become a Eusoffian. I realized that I was about to embark on an incredible experience, which would change me in many ways. Missing orientation pushed me to join a lot of committees in Eusoff as a freshie, allowing me to learn more about the different aspects of hall life. I eventually scrapped the idea that hall was merely a place for accommodation in University. It was so much more. I met many great people and learnt from their experiences so as to better serve not just the hall but also the community.

I have taken away so many great experiences from my time in Eusoff. I've had chance to experience Eusoff's journey in the IHG where we eventually emerged champions again this year (Eusoff to the Fore !!!) and have had the chance to contribute to the brilliance of DP during my years in Eusoff. I realized however that there was something my heart yearned for and I wanted to do more to mould the social landscape of the hall. That's what led me to run for Social Services Director because I felt that this was something which I could give my all and improve hall life for everyone.

It's been a great honour to serve Eusoff as a part of the 24th JCRC. I would like to thank the people whose guidance were essential. Without whom I wouldn't be in this place, including Lee Yu, Jason Teh, Seng Tuck, Arvin, Yvonne and Bryan. Also to my graduating sister, Priya, who guided me throughout my time in Eusoff.

Being in the JCRC introduced me to much more things than I imagined of and I have enjoyed every second of it as together with BWongz, Mel, Lynette, Sarah, Alston, Ivan, Val, Syak, and Cheryl, we have done our best to take Eusoff to greater heights. These guys are the 9 most incredible people I have ever met. If I had to do this all over again, there is no group of more passionate and fun people I would rather take on this journey.

Next, kudos to my Committee heads, Michelle, Florence, Vivian, Muhaina, Keith and Eng Ping for the awesome year. It's been a great year of service to the society right from the heart. Cheers to Green Comm for the creative ideas this year and great participation in the inter-hall green competition. To EVC and Eusoff Expeditions, who won prestigious trophies for community projects during the Student Achievement Awards, it was another great year contributing and helping with the developments. With all the incredible events we have organized such as the SA post exam celebration, Chinese New Year dinner for the elderly, Social awareness week, and the greener dinner, I honestly can't wait for our Eusoff Expedition to go to Cambodia!

Thanks to the hall office and SCRC for guiding us and supporting our ideas. To all my fellow resident friends, it has been my honor to have worked with everyone this year. There's much more to mention than these words can express. It was surely not an easy task to manage 7 NUS modules in a semester with the CCAs in NUS & Eusoff Hall, at the same time enjoy everything one was doing and cherish the experience.

The memories have been very sweet and I know I'll miss every moment of this journey.
Eusoff is truly my home away from home.

Warmest regards,

Ankur . V . ☺

24TH JCRC Media Director (11/12)

ALSTON YAP

Looking back, AY2011/12 passed by in a flash. I still remember the day when I sat down with Bryan Wong discussing whether to step up as Media Director and I must say, it was a decision I shall never regret. It has been a great year for all of us, with various achievements in all our fields of excellence; it kind of saddens me a little inside to see it pass by. The media scene has always been lively in Eusoff and this year is no different. With our numerous media and audio support from the pre-event designs of posters, websites, banners and T-shirts to event day photography and videography coverage and audio support to post-event editing, exporting and publications, this year was one crazy hectic year with the annual commitments and 'little' additions Eusoff Hall has taken up.

This year, with our handling of the point system, we chose to offer more points for the Media Comms. in recognition of their year-round and behind-the-scenes hard work. We saw an improvement in video production (we surely remembered the amazing Rag Video that came with hi-def!), greater photography (DP and Chingay photos!) and design, intense coverage (IHG and hall events' photos and videos), new ventures (Music Videos for EusoffB and), improved trainings (Audioworks), many behind the scenes effort (points system can be viewed online & voting system), greater use of social media platforms for publicity and connectivity (Facebook Groups) and if all goes right, the unveiling of the new Eusoff Website! (Editor: The new Eusoff Website is up!)

Those are just the tip of the iceberg, so to all Eusoffians engaged in EusoffWorks, Audioworks and Publications, you all have put in incredible amount of effort in your committee work. I must extend a big Congratulations to you, not only for surviving the frantic year but also for performing extraordinarily. Thank you. You have done Eusoff proud and I wish that your dedication can be passed on to future generations. Of course, I shall not forget the people who have made my life so much easier with their admirable devotion to their cause - the Committee Heads and Main Comm. These are the people who have spearheaded new initiatives for their committees and ensuring the foundation is set for many years to come.

Publications Head, Yuh Ting, thanks for stepping up to lead Publications despite the numerous issues and setbacks you had to face. You have done very well and this fine Yearbook is only testament of that! Audioworks Head, Wenli (Simon) for leading a fresh group of Eusoffians in providing audio support to events. It was not a smooth journey but from your hard work, I'm sure you managed to learn so much about leadership, management and looking towards the future. Last but certainly not least, EusoffWorks Head, Ivan Lim who have arguably one of the toughest job in Eusoff Hall - commanding nearly 100 members and continuing if not expanding the legacy of past seniors. Thank you so much for your hard work and dedication and for making EusoffWorks a homely-er place. I believe your love for the job has made you a role model and inspired many younger Eusoffians to follow suit. Further thanks is also extended to the EusoffWorks Main Comm who have done exceptionally well in leading their wings - Manning, Hu Qiang, Apple, Suzanne, Yidan, Yiding, Keith, Yilun, Ouwa, Karan, TimTay, Carolyn, Chen Yu and of course one of the last remaining old-bird, Joshua for being the ever-present advisor that you are.

It has been a great pleasure to have you all as leaders and inspirers!

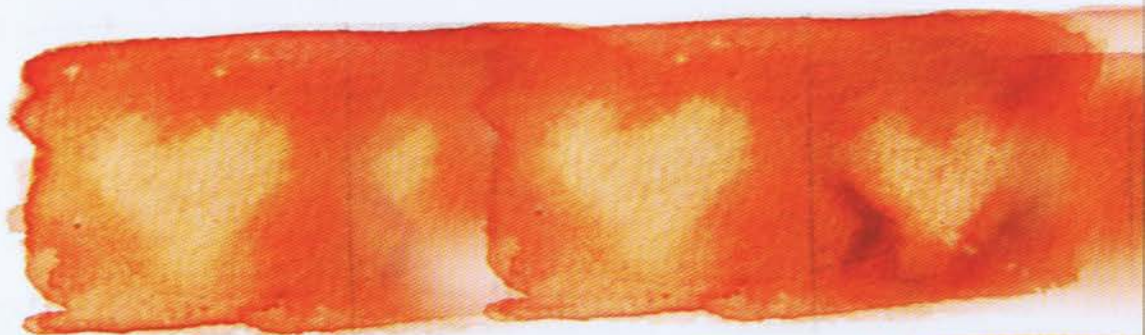

Looking back, indeed a little part of me feels sad that this great year of service will come to an end but the optimistic part of me feels that there's so much to look forward to from this group of dedicated, hard working and talented individuals. May the force continue to be with you all and remember to lead the way for young ones to follow and learn. Here's to a greater year ahead!

P.S. Here's to the 24th JCRC for being such awesome people to work and have fun with. I can gladly say that this year has been the best I've experienced in Eusoff and I owe it largely to you all. Thank you for the good times guys :) - Alston Family3, a story about a family of five whose lives had all been jeopardized constantly by the father's penchant for gambling and how the children's refusal to attend the wake of their debt-stricken father, when he dies, threatens the very fabric of a traditional Chinese family. The play features five characters: Jonathan, the father, Lilian, the mother. Joey, the eldest son who is also a twin, a student who signs on as an army officer, Zoey, the twin sister of Joey, a student who also works as a social escort and Jack, the youngest son who is an extremely self-centered and bright JC student.

RAG

Presenting the float,

Eusoff and Temasek Halls' first Combined Rag

Dear Eusoffians! I would first like to begin by expressing my greatest appreciation to each Ragger and Rag Dancer for putting in countless number of hours into the float works and dance practices. Your dedication has made our Rag float and performance a memorable one that certainly wowed the audiences (I'm sure you remember that awesome feeling when the crowd went woahh!)

Our appreciation also extends to Master, the SCRC, Ms Rashidah and the Hall Office staff, Uncle Lim, dear seniors and all freshies who lent us their support. Thank you very much! With each of your contributions, FORMOSITAS managed to live up to high expectations and deserves a special mention for its various achievements.

This year's Rag event was rather special and offered many firsts for us. It was the first time we performed at the Promontory, Marina Bay on National Day. It was the first time there was no competition, in a bid to lessen inter-hall rivalry. And It was the first time we joined forces with none other than our friendly neighbour, Temasek Hall to put together a float and performance.

These firsts presented a new sort of challenge for us. Obviously, the new partnership felt slightly awkward and tense at the beginning and we had to raise the standard to present a float and perform in front of a public crowd on a celebrated day.

Despite the new challenges, Rag always offers a fundamental set of experience that each Ragger will find familiar. In the words of Joon Kit, a previous Rag Head, 'It is an expedition of self-discovery for a group of individuals who came together to form a team that spent more than three months working together'. As we begin to envision our Big Picture, our journey initiated by many ideas and designs on paper. Slowly but surely, we see the best of these ideas appear in front of our eyes. From simple wooden structures to sponge wrappings and from painted surfaces to detailed settings, every day we work by the code of achieving our final goal and dream, that is to see our Big Picture come alive.

Being the avenue to express ones creative freedom, Rag has also allowed us to explore our inner self as we pushed our physical and mental limits. Some fought through the night to complete structures by their deadlines; others brainstormed of creative and innovative usage of recyclable materials to create beautifully intricate designs. We also experienced the importance of teamwork and in trusting our friends as well as count on each others' support when in need. Like our 'groundnut' caterpillar that was so heavy to lift on to the float; without the support of each other in carrying it, it will never be able to spread its majestic Butterfly Wings and fly. Above all, every bit and piece from each ragger played a part in the overall completion of the Float and so you should all be proud of that.

Performers also worked hard in learning dance moves and practicing week in week out. They complement the Float with such high standard choreography from our choreographers, Xian You and Wilfred; all which made our Rag Performance a spectacle worth watching over and over. The sharp slick movements of the intro to Yeah Yeah Yeah that made the audience go "whoaa" will forever be etched in our minds as one of the unforgettable moments of our Rag. We also dared to perform high rise cheerleading stunts and throws that not many are willing to risk. This is of course only possible after many many practices to perfect the routine.

At the end of the day, we will look back and think of all the blood, sweat and tears we put in to get to where we were on the afternoon of 9th August 2011. Challenges came and went but it was all good in the end. On hindsight, the three months seemed like a short while but always remember all the things we gained through those times.

Remember the people you know and friends you made. It is through tough times that best friendships are forged. They will last a long time. (We also made good friends with Temasekians and hopefully the partnership will continue to benefit our Rag endeavour for a long time).

Remember the feeling of putting in dedicated hard-work day in day out. It is a must-have component of wanting to achieve desirable results. I dare say that it has further moulded us to who we are today.

And remember that sense of accomplishment. That ecstatic sensation of completion and satisfaction has not escaped me and I hope is the same for each of you too. I can proudly say that it is a feeling I will never forget and forever cherish.

So here's to all of us and the future generation of Ragers!

CHINGAY

The Grandest Stage of ASIA - Chingay! Yes Eusoffians, we made it once again to Chingay, the parade of beautiful floats and a celebration of culture. Chingay is a national event celebrated annually and this time, we were offered the opportunity to grace this stage. Of course, we remember that it was the success of our Rag Float and Performance that gave us this chance in the first place.

I'd like to take the opportunity to thank Master and the SCRC for all their support and acknowledgment. I'm also truly grateful to Ms Rashidah for being ever so helpful in everything, especially in the administrative sector. Further thanks to my dear JCRC peeps who took the time out of their busy schedule to dance for the 2 nights. Last but not least, a big thank you to all performers who danced their hearts out and every member of my team for the continued hard work and dedication. It was a pleasure on my part to have each of you in the team. Also not forgetting, the wonderful photographers and videographers who truly captured the essence of our participation in Chingay, thank you so much!

In going to Chingay, we had the chance to upscale our Float to be fit for an international audience. Improvements were made to the design that we were not capable of before and brilliant lightings were installed to add a more sparkly bling that will light up the night. New costumes for performers were created to further complement the float and gave our whole presentation that extra zest.

In the performance side, we were met with the challenge of recruiting enough dancers to fill our 360m long stage. About 200 were needed and that's a tall task already not mentioning the effort needed by the choreographers to train and manage them all. Yet it surely is a fruitful experience for each of them, especially Xian You and Wilfred yeah? :) Through this times, we met new friends from all over NUS and other residences and got closer to our fellow Eusoffians.

At the end of the day, we managed to pull through and put up two high standard, awesome performances for both Chingay nights that left the crowd dancing along. Not only that, we had the bliss of performing in water and had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

For us Eusoffians, and especially those in the team, Chingay is not just a cultural event catered to international audiences. It is also a celebration of our prior success in Rag and all the hard work, dedication and immense passion we have for it. It was particularly meaningful for us as we stand shoulder to shoulder with some of the other experienced and distinguished contingents, both local and foreign. Chingay for us is the extra reward for a good job done and I hope serves as added incentive to inspire future Raggers. Here's to all of us and all of them!

Eusoff Voluntary Corps (EVC)

Headed by Michelle Wong

EVC is currently one of the biggest committees in Eusoff Hall with around 80 members working hand-in-hand. There are three programmes under EVC, namely Elderly Service (ES), Salvation Army (SA), and MINDS. There is also a Project Team which handles ad-hoc events and sponsorships.

Elderly Service

EVC Elderly Service (ES) team is actively involved in supporting the elderly community around Chin Swee Road, both physically and emotionally. Other than delivering food to them on every Saturday, we help the needy elderly, especially those with mobility difficulties, to do household chores and to buy groceries.

Besides that, projects such as the Health Management Programme and Grant-a-Wish Project were also carried out to ensure that the health conditions of the elderly are well cared for and their material needs are fulfilled. Events such as Mid-Autumn Festival and Chinese New Year dinner were carried out to ensure that the elderly were not left out during festive occasions.

This year, we managed to get Bengawan Solo to sponsor mooncakes for the elderly. We also managed to get Community Integration Fund (CIF) from National Integration Council to fund the Chinese New Year dinner. Furthermore, we have been listed as one of the seven charities that will benefit from the "Birthday donations" on Ms. Catherine Lim's 70th birthday, which falls on 23rd March 2012.

Salvation Army

EVC Salvation Army (SA) team is involved in giving tuition to the children at the Salvation Army Centre, The Haven on every Tuesday and Wednesday. Our members are paired up with the children on one-to-one basis so that the children can get undivided attention from our members during the tutoring sessions.

Besides giving tuition, SA also organizes a post-exam party at the West Coast Park to reward the children for their hard work throughout the year. This year, the gifts for the children are funded by 'Drink Tea' Bubble Tea Sale, which was carried out by SA Team during Social Awareness Week. And starting from this year, we have made Sports Session, a session in which our Eusoff sportsmen teach the children some basic floorball techniques, one of our official events.

MINDS

EVC Movement for Intellectually Disabled of Singapore (MINDS) programme is a weekly service programme in which members will visit Clementi Training and Development Center (CTDC) to befriend and interact with the clients in that center. Other than weekly services, EVC MINDS also organizes events in collaboration with MINDS CTDC to raise funds and awareness for MINDS CTDC.

This year, MINDS set up a booth in Eusoff Hall to sell handicrafts made by clients in CTDC during Social Awareness Week in October. Our members also helped with the preparation work for the MINDS Concert which was held on 14th and 15th of October at Republic Polytechnic.

Overall

EVC's excellent and outstanding accomplishment in community projects was recognized when we received the NUS Student Achievement Award 2011 earlier in February 2011. This year, EVC has again received the same award at the Award Presentation Ceremony held on 17 February 2012.

Expeditions

Headed by Ng Eng Ping, Keith Chong
and Nurmuhaina Bakar

Eusoff Expeditions was founded 8 years ago and has ever since grown both in numbers and purpose. This year, Project Kaleidoscope's mission is to have a closely knitted team who focus on high service learning, both locally and overseas, and to foster the spirit of volunteerism and personal development in all our members. This is in the hope of achieving our vision to develop a compassionate team through selfless acts of local and overseas volunteerism, and to foster the spirit of personal discovery through reflection and sharing among members.

Some objectives that we've set this year:

- To be able to meet or surpass last year's fund raising contributions to the adopted village.
- To explore new ways of contributing to our Cambodian beneficiary, not just through monetary and physical donations, but through cultural exchanges and interactions.
- To expose our members to the virtue of service to the community through local service, and not just in Cambodia.
- To encourage personal learning and development in all our members through constant sharing among team members and small-team reflection sessions, as well as discussions regarding social issues.

Objectives are mere benchmarks to meet to achieve our final goal. To achieve these objectives, we actively organised and participated in various fund-raisers and voluntary sessions. Getting wet and dirty for the annual Kaleidoscope car wash, sweating it all out at the newspaper collection, and grinding out donations and profits at our chocolate sales are just snippets of what we did for fund raising. As part of our local community programme, we liaised with 'Food From the Heart' to help sort, pack and deliver rations to the elderly in Singapore. Additionally, we executed the annual tie-dye and stationary collection drive with Maha Bohdi School with much valor and joy in our hearts.

In Project Kaleidoscope, we always give our utmost best to serve the local and overseas communities and on top of all that, we'll always remember to leave a tinge of human touch.

Since its establishment a few years back, Eusoff A Cappella has been growing by leaps and bounds, not only in the size of its members but in its repertoire as well. With a love for A Cappella music, the focus on voices sans music, the members have been enthusiastically participating in events in and out of hall.

AY2011/2012 has been an ambitious and fruitful year. A Cappella kicked off the semester as the members got together to attend "The Real Group Concert" at SOTA, an exposure to one of the most famous contemporary groups in the A Cappella scene today. It was an opportunity and experience treasured by each and everyone. Pumped up, the members prepared for Channel [EH], NUSSU Sparkz Competition and an external event held by the People's Association—Youth Got Talent 2011.

Breaking into three groups, each group familiarized themselves and trained diligently. Group 3 dominated both competitions by making it through to the Finals for both Sparkz and Youth Got Talent, winning Champion in the latter. Group 1, consisting mainly of freshies, also did the club proud by winning First Runner-Up in Youth Got Talent 2011.

During the holidays, the members attended an A Cappella Song Arrangement Workshop, conducted by a Eusoff alumni. Holidays have been made more interesting as A Cappella joined EH Choir for Christmas caroling at Mandarin Oriental Hotel.

The desire to continuously improve has not diminished in Semester 2. Eusoff A Cappella took part in an inter-hall event – Amplitude as well as an event organized by our very own hall – Eusoff Fiesta. As in all our performances, we hope that our audience from the past, present and future, enjoyed and will enjoy the performance as much as we enjoy performing it.

The year for Eusoff Band started, interestingly enough, on the streets, with a representative group sent out to busk for Flag Day. Armed with a beautiful banner with the strong words, "we sell hope, not music", our acoustic guitars and our overworked vocal chords, we took on the stampede of citizens with zest and enthusiasm unmatched. As expected, the "businessmen" and "businesswomen" added much to our bounty, helping us along with our self-esteem issues.

The usual plethora of performances followed thereafter, first with the one of our ad-hoc bands playing for NUSU's project X. Subsequently, the oh-so-adorable acoustic band "The Moogles" and heart-wrenching acoustic band "Fifth Harmonic" took on culture week, and veteran pop band "Digressions" and new rockers "Lucid" closed at culture night.

The second semester saw other large gigs, as Digressions played for Rockfest, bringing back the liveliness of the music from the golden era of the 80s, whilst the other bands were showcased at NUS Open house whilst acoustic band "Seventh Harmonic" was featured at Eusoff Fiesta. Our newest band, a British Indie styled band "Take Two" took on Eusoff Bash, getting people on their feet to dancy tunes.

However, we at Eusoff Band also understand the importance of training. Master classes for guitar, drums and bass are regularly held to make our musicians more versatile and theory lessons are conducted for a solid foundation.

Our newest venture was to start making music videos. After purchasing the required equipment and receiving training from Amanda Tee, eusoffbands has already released a couple of videos and is continuing to uphold its reputation as the home of some of the best bands in NUS.

These lyrics from Miley Cyrus' The Climb pretty much summed up the year for Eusoff Choir. With more than half of our members comprising of freshies this year, Eusoff Choir overcame obstacles along the way to make it through another fruitful year, under the meticulous guidance of our beloved conductor Erin Ong.

This year, we were honored to be invited once again to sing for the MDIS Graduation Ceremony, where our rendition of The Climb moved the graduating students and their families to tears.

Then there was Talent Night 'Channel EH' where we performed The Climb, a song which brings up recollections of our individual climbs in choir, as well as, as a choir.

Over the years, Christmas caroling has become a tradition for Eusoff Choir, and this year we caroled in Mandarin Oriental Hotel. The heartwarming moments of caroling would indeed become part of the unforgettable Eusoffian memories for seniors and freshies alike. Including the epic wind that blew everything on the conductor stand into the pool! Indeed it was A Holly Jolly Christmas spent with friends, songs, and good food.

Looking forward, Eusoff Choir will be anticipating opportunities to make a voice for ourselves in the hall's next Dance Production (hopefully!), NUS Open House, and also to carol to our hearts content! But for this year, it's Target A-Choir-ed.

'Back to basics' would be the best term to describe how Eusoff Dance started off this year. In order to allow dancers and non-dancers alike to experience what dancing in Eusoff is like, we kickstarted the year with two open classes, conducted by our senior choreographers. It was a pleasant experience as the overwhelming number of sign-ups made the classes enjoyable and lively.

This year, Eusoff Dance successfully held its first Dance Camp - a half-day event to welcome the freshmen dancers who passed our auditions, and to introduce them to basic technicalities of dancing. The day consisted of ice breakers and two beginner classes in hip-hop and contemporary dance, and we also included basic stretching and routines in both genres to help dancers to improve their techniques, be it experienced or new dancers. The camp even ended off with an extra street jazz class at the request of our very enthusiastic freshmen dancers!

Eusoff Dance continued its eventful calendar with more tech classes conducted by external choreographers, as well as our first internal hall performance - Talent Night! Choreographed by freshman Han Rui, the item was an exciting mix of energetic hip-hop moves and KPop steps - and it was a successful performance as the audience cheered and applauded to the happy choreography.

It was then mid-year break as most of our dancers prepared for our annual Dance Production and Chingay 2012 - two dance-centric events where our dancers stepped up to the game of performing in front of a huge crowd, and received wildly positive response to both events.

Next on the events list was Eusoff Fiesta, the charity bazaar. We prepared a hip-hop item choreographed by two seniors, with a large group of freshmen and seniors who were picked for their interest in hip-hop.

Eusoff Dance ended the exciting year performing for Dance Uncensored 2012, the combined hall dance concert. It was truly a grand event as all six halls came together to perform at the UCC theatre; Eusoff Dance proudly presented 3 dances in contemporary, jazz funk and hip-hop genres, providing a diverse mix of dance styles for the audience.

Eusoff Drama, a collection of Eusoff Hall's talented thespians, playwrights, directors, producers and theater enthusiasts participates in a host of theater-related activities each year to share their common passion.

In the first semester of the academic year 2011-2012, Eusoff Drama started off with a bang with Drama coaching sessions from theater doyen Shiv Tandan. He conducted a number of activities for our Drama members including voice modulation, physical gestures on stage, movement and playwriting. This also doubled up as a bonding session to bring together our old and new members, allowing them to get comfortable and learn a little about each other. Following this, Drama hosted two hall events- Cultural Week, during which we emceed in addition to putting up a short skit, infused with humour of a racial lilt, and Eusoff Got Talent, where the Drama members emceed the talent show by dressing up as popular media characters like Lady Gaga and the Glee cast.

In the second semester, due to the unfortunate availability of a venue, Dramafest, our usual major show was postponed to the following academic year. As a replacement for this, Drama members assisted in constructing the sets of Dance Production, Eusoff Hall's annual musical show. This provided our members with expertise in the areas of props, sets and scene-changing. The event Eusoff Drama will be hosting this semester is Eusoff Fiesta, an annual fair with food and games. Drama members will be emceeding and putting up a humorous skit. We are still to see off this last event and hope it goes well!

After silence, that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music. For us at Elixer, this music is encapsulated by rhythm. The majestic sound from our percussion instruments amalgamates the Latino and African origins and influences. These influences, delicately interwoven to create catchy and upbeat rhythms are based on traditional, age-old tempo and pulse. We believe that there is an inner musician in everyone where one exhibits an innate inclination towards rhythms and dance.

The main performance for this troupe was at EH! Got Talent. Once again, Elixer took the stage by storm with our STOMP performance, which is a combination of choreographed percussion and movements. Everyday items such as pails, broomsticks, glass bottles and other unique tools were made use of, each carefully chosen to produce and deliver the exact quality of sound we required. Though the performance was short, it was a breathtaking one which was well received by the audience. Other performances include a showcase at the NUS Open House 2012, which was held over 2 days in March.

Elixer also gives each member a chance to explore unique instruments and roles in the troupe. Working closely with local percussionist Hazizi Jafaar, Elixer also performed in NUS Open House 2012 and Eusoff Fiesta. The troupe had the opportunity of learning a variety of Latin and Sambal style of percussion, utilizing a variety of instruments ranging from Congas and Bongos to Cowbells and Surdos.

Other enriching opportunities are offered as well, with subsidies provided to immerse us in external programs such as Heartware Drumming. Through all these learning activities, every member invokes inventiveness and artistry. Every individual is unique and therefore the inputs and the performances are of a positive standard but never the same.

For the most part, the fulfilling and gratifying experience accompanied by many late night practices amplifies our musicianship and determination to deliver good music. To the many years ahead for this young percussion troupe, Elixer, cheers.

Taking on the handball team was a good experience and I am heartened to see many of the year 1s picking up the sport. We are a very young team comprising many year 1s who stepped up to play throughout the season. I am very grateful for every player who committed their time, blood and sweat to the team and who came down for training. I am especially grateful to Jia Kai who agreed to coach us and everyone improved under his guidance.

Although the loss was a bitter one, everyone played their hearts out and I am really impressed by our performance on the court especially Lydia and Amanda who took charge of the game. This season has no doubt allowed many players to dramatically improve their skills and next year we will come back much stronger to take the gold medal! I really enjoyed training with the handball team!

The handball team this year surpassed all targets that I had placed on the team. For the first time in 7 years, we reached the finals only to lose to the giants of handball-Sheares Hall. With more than half of the team consisting of Year 1s who have never played the sport before, it was certainly no small feat. To be honest, at the start of the year, a semi-final berth would have been satisfactory for me. However, throughout the December holidays, the whole team showed much commitment during training and this made me all the more confident. Dedicated freshies like Andy, Fu Ginn, Li Jun, Shaun and Desmond coupled with experienced seniors like Jia Kai, Chris Koh, Wai Hong, Wen Qiang, San Chin, Matthew and Xavier started to make me believe that perhaps, we could somehow make something happen this year! Despite numerous training and injuries sustained, the guys seldom utter a word of complaint when they turned up for training. Even the freshies, who were experiencing IHG trainings for the first time, also put in their fair share of work and did not slack off at any time. When called upon, every member of the team including freshies gave their all on the court and it finally culminated in a 2nd placing. I thank the whole team for giving me their best during the short few months leading up to IHG and I hope that next year would be a better year for Eusoff Handball. I firmly believe that another final berth is within our grasp.

He gestured at our fourth runner and laughed to his friends, as she laid on the grass, delirious over her new personal best timing. As she rolled around laughing, our last runner paced frantically just five meters away from her. I had a rush of emotions then, feeling both ecstatic that our first four runners had done splendid timings yet also nerve wrecked because the game had taken an exciting turn the moment our second runner came in with a one minute lead. It gave us a fighting chance.

We lucked out with the weather as it was cool and breezy, a nice change from the humid conditions we were used to in our afternoon training. The 2.2km route started with easy ups and downs before hitting an absolutely boring [HOW CAN ANYTHING THAT IS BORING BE TREACHEROUS???, CAN YOU CHANGE TO SOMETHING ELSE? I DO NOT KNOW THE CONTEXT FOR THIS RUN) but treacherous 900m path (with all the ninja sticks and stones) and then facing "The Slope". At this point, all runners (well, at least for me) would probably be questioning their own madness in signing up for this relay: Who ever walks up this slope instead of taking the campus bus?

Our neighbors crowded along the middle part of the slope and seeing nothing but white as I ran up the slope, my breathing got difficult. I was reminded of the Titanic movie as I was gasping for air just before I reached the top. Then, I hit yellow ground. Screams of "GO EUSOFFFFFFFFF!" and "GO EUSOFFFFFFFFF!" and "GO EUSOFFFFFFFFF!" were heard in waves and with different pitches. No words could fully describe how I felt upon hearing the cheers. I felt gratified.

We waited anxiously near the roundabout for our last runner with our eyes fixed at the bus stop opposite YIH. The moment we caught a glimpse of the black and gold jersey, we knew that the relay was ours. Our last runner crossed the finishing line 43 secs ahead of the next hall and everyone went quite mad. A close friend of mine (clue: short hair, good with balls HAHA) even teared, and she does not even like running. It's been seven years since we brought home the Gold, so I've been told. It must have been the queer sounding cheers from our supporters(thank you, really), or maybe the witty yellow board that said "The End Is Near", or it might just have been the Yellow Blood coursing through the runners' veins.

IHG Squash 11/12 didn't end in spectacular fashion. However that's the beauty about being a Eusoffian: We know we're still champions inside and we'll come back fighting even harder the next year.

Thank you Chin Ping for guiding me as a senior and being such an asset to the team! To our players who just picked up squash, thank you for all your contributions on and off the court. You guys are definitely players to watch out for in the coming years; Eusoff is in good hands!

On behalf of the team, I'd also like to wish all the best to graduating senior Jianliang who has been a part of the team for the last 4 years! Lastly thank you Sharry our beloved TM!

My first IHG experience has indeed been a baptism of fire. No amount of IHG videos or recounts by the seniors would have anticipated the desire and aggression required to play IHG.

I thank my teammates for their effort, heart and commitment throughout the entire course of the season, be it in training, friendlies, or IHG itself. My teammates made me realize that the edge Eusoff has above others is our willingness to run for balls others would deem lost and the ability to fight on when others would give up. It is this mental tenacity we possess which I remain most proud of.

Although results may not have gone the way we expected them to and the initial disappointment still lingers, it is not for our want of trying. As the saying goes, the journey is infinitely more important than the destination. In the midst of working towards a gold medal, I hope we do not lose sight of how sport has the power to bring people together. While we may not wear gold at the end of the day, the shared experience of training together under scorching sun and pouring rain are fond memories that no one can take away. I have learnt a great deal about attitude and dedication from my teammates during training and I hope that in as much as I have learnt from them, they have learnt from each other as well.

I would also like to thank seniors like Nigel who came back to coach us despite his busy schedule, Kenny who not only trained us but devised numerous tactical moves for us to work on, and the many past Eusoff soccer seniors who came down to help us during training and supported us on the day of IHG. A special mention goes out to Phuc, who more than fulfilled his duties as a TM. Once again, it has been a great past three months and the momentary defeat we have tasted this time around will only make victory all the sweeter when we achieve it.

Always remember, we have the "believe" behind our crests and upon our hearts!

Traditionally, Eusoff Soccer(M) has been a power house in soccer but we have failed to live up to expectations in the past 2 years; We were knocked out in the semis in 2009/2010 and lost the finals in 2010/2011. Yes, soccer may be a ball game and the favorite team may not always win, but this year, the soccer guys are determined to prove that the favorites are indeed 'favorites'.

We started preparing early in November 2011, with training and weekly friendly matches. I continued practicing equality between IVP players and non-IVP players as pursued by the previous soccer captain, Lee Renji. The soccer guys, especially the freshmen, were committed to the cause and regularly turned up for training & matches. Those who were unable to do so always had a valid reason behind their absence and yes, everyone knew that everyone ELSE was dead serious about this year's IHG. We progressed from the fundamentals and then move on to improve on techniques. I must say that these guys are indeed a talented bunch and most importantly, there was cohesion and never any disputes among the team. As the captain, I might have made mistakes when it came to gameplay or drills but my team mates always pointed out my errors to me in a friendly manner. It really made my job easier knowing that I had the essential respect from my team to make calls in the IHG game.

I wanted to display our understanding and closeness via our gameplay, and it was done with the concept of a possession game. We really put up a good show for the other halls. Our guys were in tip-top condition and those who were on the bench did an excellent job by the sidelines. Substitutes did fantastically too. Training, talent and sticking to the game plan were keys to our success in IHG. The depth of the team was immense; anyone could fill up the void left by someone, maybe except RAIHAN. This was evident in the semifinals and final, when I was only able to play a little part as captain ON the field because of my injury but the guys gave me a BIG reason to be happy despite things. They played fantastically, executing revenge on the two halls responsible for kicking us out in the past 2 years, TH and KR. They made me proud, made Eusoff proud and most importantly they did not let themselves down. They performed to the level which was expected of them and exceeded their own expectations too. I would like to sincerely thank the graduating seniors for finally giving our first gold medal in Soccer. The standard laid down in this year's IHG team will be a benchmark for the years to come. We are only going to progress with this team (with additions of course), never moving backwards.

Academic Year of 11/12 was a tough year for Eusoff Hall's badminton team as both male and female teams lacked good players as many of our players had graduated. Ivan, being one of the most prominent and experienced players around, stepped up to be the captain of both male and female teams. Despite difficulties faced, Ivan looked out for new recruits to both the teams, trained the juniors, and improved their skills so as to meet the high standard required at the IHG. In this season, we failed to capitalize on our advantage and lost matches due to a lack of experience. The matches were tough as there were better players in the other halls but we were not bad either. For the male team, the players played hard against Raffles Hall but bowed out humbly at the semi-finals. On the other hand, our badminton female team fought hard and, although we lost to Temasek Hall, we were able to put up a good fight against them. Good job and Kudos to Eusoff badminton team! Heads up, and we shall try again next year to regain our footing in finals!

On the 11th Febuary 2012, I never felt prouder to don the yellow jersey once again to play for Eusoff Floorball. For every player on the team and every supporter, there is no doubt that the carnival will be forever etched in their minds. To re-bounce from a demoralising 4-1 loss to TH to attain a heart stopping 3-2 victory to KR, and lastly an astonishing 9-0 thrashing to RH (we needed 12 goals that game to win) was no ordinary feat for any team. Now, do you believe in miracles? That is why to me, Eusoff Floorball 11/12 is extraordinary and there is no other team I would have wanted to lead. I can safely say that everyone left MPSH6 with no regrets that day because we never stopped believing in each other and in the possibility of our dream coming true. So this is our reward to the crazy midnight training, and the ball hitting and rolling at the function hall.

Lastly, thank you all for the great season! The person who deserves special mention would be our coach, Lee Renji, who was so patient and committed to the team. Iliyasa, Shaun and Teck Wei for helping out with the training and everyone in the team for looking like girls but playing like men.

This year's floorball team is extraordinary! No one disagrees with each other! The team saw many returning seniors whose presence set the high standard for our freshmen to meet. And I think we have done the hall proud.

Eusoff Basketball girls have once again done us proud. From girls who barely knew each other at the start of the academic year, we have grown tremendously as a team who will fight till the very end. Even though some of our members had no basketball experience prior to this, they did not give up, but instead pushed themselves even harder under the tutelage of Hon Chan, our coach. A big thank you to him for sacrificing so much of his time to help us, especially since this is his final year here in Eusoff!

Through the many grueling hours of late night training during the term and under the scorching hot sun during the holidays, the team has bonded much. Our endeavors certainly did not go to waste, as we ended the IHG season with a respectable second place. None of this could have been made possible without the combined efforts of the team, especially the Vice Captain, Lee Lixuan, who never failed to make it down, and Wong Wantian, for her help in taking on the training. Not forgetting our team manager, Edmund Tan: he was the one individual who ran about behind the scene, ensuring that the welfare and administrative work of the team were taken care of.

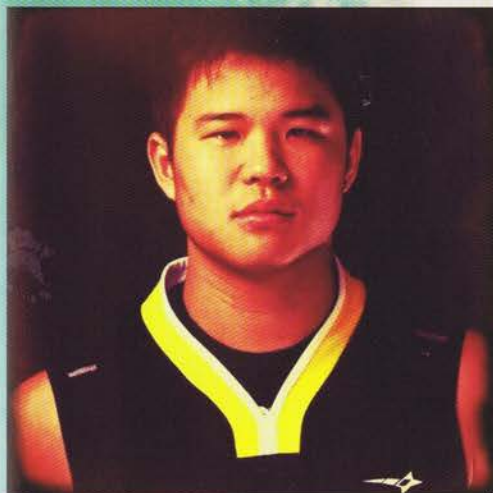

I am extremely grateful to have been given this opportunity, especially as a freshie, to lead such a multi-talented group of young women. As the underdog in this competition, you girls have proved others wrong by reaching the finals, showing the other halls that we are a team to be reckoned with. It has been an honor to work with you girls, and I hope we can train together again for the next IHG.

The basketball team for IHG 11/12 was formed around week 7 in Semester 1 this Academic Year. We had many players from different backgrounds. Some of us have been playing since primary school while others have just picked up basketball as a sport in hall. It was apparent that there was a lot of work to be done for us to be considered a championship team.

With a common goal instilled in our minds to get back the gold that we lost in IHG 10/11, under the guidance of ex-captains JIA KAI and HON CHAN, we planned our training programs so as to cater to individual and the team's needs. Starting from the basics of passing and dribbling, we progressed further to extremely taxing and tiring defensive shell drills as well as training ourselves to shoot hundreds of times in each training session. Albeit demanding physical training, which we all dread, we slowly got better over time.

I am very blessed to have a perfect mix of rookies and seniors in the team who were all very enthusiastic about basketball and determined to win the championship. Seniors such as Shan Chin, Wen Qiang and Matthew were around to share their past experiences in playing for the team, motivate the rookies and also guide them through tactics required in set plays that past Eusoff teams were known for playing. I also do not forget Lim "HOU SICK!", Gang Yi, and Andrew Yeo who would often throw out funny and "off" comments in order to lighten up the mood of the whole team when members are drained out by the training. Finally, I would also like to thank the rookies who were commitment to their training and who put themselves through a lot of tough training and criticism.

As we look back to the first day when the freshmen came down for trials at the not so attractive Multi Purpose Court (MPC) until now when we have reached the end of our season, we can see a vast difference. We came together as individuals who loved the sport but we ended up as a team of brothers as well as a championship winning team!

Netball

This IHG season has overall been a remarkable experience. It is distinctively different from the previous year, because as you become a year 2, you become more aware and immersed in the strong rivalry amongst halls in the bid to win the overall IHG title. Having said this, stepping up to my role as captain of my team, I have had my fair share of pressure and challenges. The initially stress of having to lead a team, plan trainings, and so on, was nerve wrecking but it turned out not to be a lonesome journey because of the collective effort of the team to make the most out of training and gameplays. So a big THANK YOU to my teammates for making this netball season one of my best experiences in Eusoff. The journey hasn't been entirely smooth-sailing considering the lack of practices we had together and the amount of injuries we sustained during this season (here's proof that we trained hard!). But we are secretly warriors in our own form, so yes, ladies, I am very proud of everyone that we made it!

Softball

Softball is the only co-ed sport in IHG and thus slightly different compared from the rest. The sport emphasizes more on teamwork and accommodation because that is the only way the team will pull through and do well.

Eusoff Hall's softball team has made a reputation for itself over the years by clinching two consecutive championships. This was why all the other teams deemed us to as the favorites and saw us as the team to beat.

Eusoff's softball team underwent a lot of changes as we lost many of our seniors who won us the previous two championships. Thus it was imperative that we trained even harder to make up for the talent that we had lost. Training was frequent and the hours long but the team pulled through.

When push comes to shove when It was time for the IHG, the team beat all its contenders (including Temasek Hall twice) to clinch the third consecutive champion.

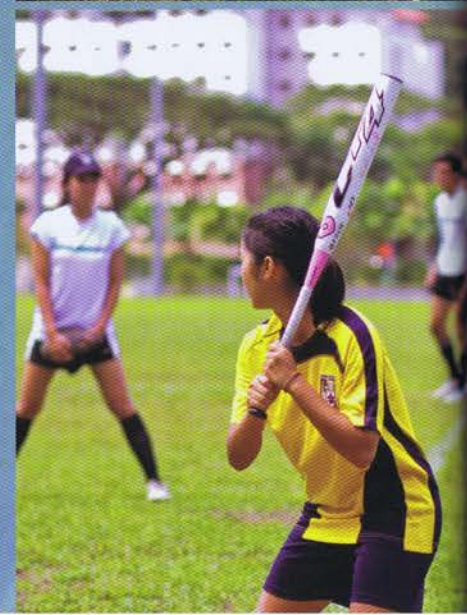

For those who have just picked up or want to pick up softball, it's all in your hands now. The fourth, the fifth, and whichever championship to come, it's all in your hands now.

It has been a very successful year for the Eusoff Swim Team. Both the male and female teams have clinched the runner-up position for the Inter-Hall Games, and both captains are indeed very pleased with the results.

The guys' team saw more members than the girls' team, but that did not deter the girls from training equally as hard as the guys. Trainings were held once or twice a week, and the training schedules for both guys and girls were always discussed enthusiastically by both captains.

With regard to the closeness of the team mates, their bonds were fairly close. Advice from the stronger swimmers was constantly given to weaker swimmers. This saw a gradual increase in team spirit as well as a decrease in individual timing. Ad-hoc 'team dinners' at Hao Xiang or Ameen's organized after training were, although infrequent, usually well-attended. The official 'team dinner' which was organized after the conclusion of IHG was well attended.

Overall, this year's Eusoff Swim Team has enjoyed great success and friendship throughout the IHG season. Needless to say, all would have been better if we had attained the Gold medal, but the very fact that the team bonded together made the title of runner-up sound equally pleasing.

Although there were some hiccups during the pre-IHG season, the team managed to survive and did well in IHG. The team comprised mostly of freshies and was a 'multi-national' team of students from China, Malaysia, Vietnam, and of course Singapore. Despite the diverse nationalities in the team, our captain, Zhi Ying has done an excellent job in leading the team to glory. It is definitely not an easy task that can be done by anyone. Since she is a freshie and is completely new to the hall culture and inner workings, she still daringly she stepped up as this year's table tennis female team captain. It is definitely my privilege to be part of this team and to go through this arduous IHG journey into the final alongside the team. I'm sure this young team will come back stronger and tougher next year. The best is yet to be.

IHG 11/12 was indeed a very exciting and memorable experience to us. More than half of the team members were freshmen and this was the first time most of us experienced competitive tennis.

We learned that nerves are always a big part of the game and our mental strength will determine our performance and a game's outcome. It was a great pleasure for me to lead the team. I made more friends in hall, trained hard, played hard and have fun together with my team mates.

Although we did not get our gold, each and every one of us feel proud of ourselves as we gave our very best and always stood together and supported each other in all situations.

Track and Field

"I am made of all the days you don't see, not just the one you do"

Indeed, the Eusoff track team overcame hurdle after hurdle, endured countless hours of trainings under the sun before finally doing the hall proud by clinching gold for both the men and women's event, putting the icing on the cake for what turned out to be another memorable IHG season. After a rollercoaster ride in the preceding weeks, track turned out to be the event which would eventually decide the overall IHG championship this year.

Despite that, the team managed to successfully shake off the pressure and gave the sea of yellow supporters who came down to support us one heck of a show.

As captain, I couldn't have asked for more from the runners. I am proud to have led each and every one of the runners throughout the entire campaign.

As a freshie captain, I was worried about my responsibilities and the expectations for the team to defend its title. When we started training, we only had one goal in mind, to win the gold medal. At first, I did not feel the importance of IHG nor had a sense of attachment to the hall, but this all changed as the games approached.

During the finals with TH, I experienced real hall spirit. We were empowered by the supporters! It was so deafening we could hardly hear each other. The shouts of encouragement when we lost a point, the cheers of joy when we gained one, all these pushed us on. All fatigue and cramps became insignificant as we fought our hardest. As the captain, I am super proud of the team for not giving up and showing how much they wanted to win. We are glad that we have not disappointed the hall. We may have even inspired others and we showed everyone what Eusoff is made of! Thank you Eusoff, for giving me my first Eusoff moment!

This IHG journey for me and my team has been tough but rewarding. Initially, I was hesitant about taking up the role as Captain but I'm glad that I convinced myself to step up and lead the volleyball team. The role as a Captain has taught me a lot about how to manage a team well and how to bring out the best in my players. I also had to think about how to make training tough yet enjoyable for the team, especially the new players.

I would have to say that this year's team has really bonded well together this IHG season. The whole team worked well together and while the season was especially stressful to me as a captain, I had a team together with me to share the burden. Although we did not win this year, I'm happy to have made it into the finals and we can truly say that we have already given it our all for the IHG campaign. I hope that this season has left some lasting and wonderful memories for everyone, especially the graduating seniors.

One thing that I'm really glad about is to have quite a number of promising freshies on my team. I can honestly say that I have tried my best to train them up during this short IHG season, and I'm glad that they came down regularly for trainings to improve themselves. There's a lack of male volleyball players in hall and I'm glad to have achieved my aim of training up the younger players in preparation of the next few IHG seasons.

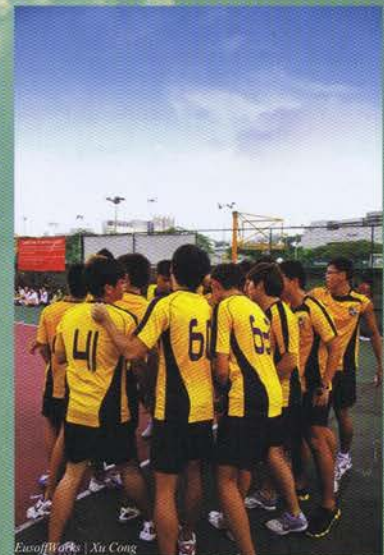

Finally, I would like to thank my team for this fantastic season and I hope that each of them have also found new friends in this team and of course have improved their volleyball skills. I would also like to thank Eusoff for believing in me and allowing me to lead the volleyball team.

The Archives has always been a crucial part of any organisation. It aims to record and store the history and events of the organisation. Eusoff Hall with its vast history, also has an archives committee taking care of this role and ensuring that the history and tradition of Eusoff Hall is known to her residents. The archives committee has always taken a back seat role in Eusoff hall and only this year, emerged as an official Eusoff committee. The committee, throughout the academic year, has been actively involved in promoting hall awareness. During IHG and DP, the committee staged a small display, showcasing the past achievements of Eusoff Hall both in the sporting and cultural scene. Being the pioneer batch, the committee also came up with an identity for the committee and is working towards developing a system to manage Eusoff Hall's vast database. Though small, the committee has great ambitions and urges more Eusoffians to join them in their mission to preserve Eusoff Hall's glories!

As a small committee of seven, we form a support group to collate and organize minutes of all the committees in Eusoff Hall. In addition to minute collection, we also supervise 24 main notice boards around hall. One of the main projects for this year was to standardize and repair these notice boards, which was completed successfully. It has been my utmost pleasure to work with my members to carry out rather mundane events in an interesting way and to strive for continuous improvement to find more efficient ways to collect minutes.

In a nutshell, as its name suggests, the Finance Committee sees to the money matters of the committees in hall. The Finance Committee (FinComm) is a small team of 9 members who oversee the financial matters of the CCAs in hall. Though small, the committee as a whole covers a lot of ground, interacting with the 30-odd committees in hall.

The main activities of the committee lie in facilitating the accounting processes of the committees in hall, liaising with committee treasurers on a regular basis. Each member is tasked with ensuring that budgets are adhered to and forms are in order before submission for vetting by the Finance Director.

In response to the new guidelines set by the Office of Financial Services, members went through briefing and training sessions in order to equip themselves with the necessary knowledge to advise committee treasurers on proper procedures and guidelines to ensure a smooth process of payments and reimbursements. Review and feedback sessions were also held in order to streamline the vetting process and identify any potential problems with the current system.

Students' Affairs Committee (SAC) Headed by Nurul Syakinah

The Student Affairs Committee or better known as SAC is responsible for the daily running of the hall. The job scope of SAC includes the weekly sorting of the mailbox, conducting Hall Food Surveys, gathering feedback from residents, Hall Awareness Week and the packing of the welfare pack nearing the end of the semester.

This Academic Year, the SAC new initiative was to introduce the Monthly Special Supper. The Monthly Special Supper, like its name suggests, is held at the end of each month and is planned for the whole hall. It is hope that through the supper, residents from all walks of life, culturally-inclined or sports-inclined, will be able to simply have fun with each other. It is hoped that the next SAC will continue to carry out the Montly Special Supper!

With almost 500 undergraduates from various disciplines of study and nationalities residing in Eusoff Hall, it is impossible to ignore the similarities despite the differences. Even over mooncakes and a lantern-making competition, it was evident that Eusoffians willingly mingle over food and welcome any challenges. At the Little India excursion during Deepavali, Eusoffians from differing cultures came together and learnt a little more of Indian culture and of course, the delicacies and food.

During Chinese New Year, the call of free prizes at our lucky dip did not fail to entice residents who wanted to try their luck and write well-wishes on the sky lanterns.

Unsurprisingly, the prizes ran out in one night. Aside from the cultural events, IRC also organized a movie screening during Halloween. Needless to say, many turned up in groups or after being dared by friends or turned up towards the end of the movie.

For the first time, IRC collaborated with Special Projects Team to hold International Carnival and Eusoff Fiesta simultaneously. Eusoffians had a chance to spend a day with current hall residents as well as alumni residents through the various food, drinks, games and performances lined up. It was truly a day where all barriers were placed aside and Eusoffians, young and old, came together to enjoy the day as a family; as one Eusoff.

EusoffWorks (EW) Headed by Ivan Lim

EusoffWorks comprises of 4 specialized wings (Video, Photography, IT and Design) where members hone their technical skills to serve Eusoff Hall's media needs. It is in essence 4 different CCAs grouped under a single umbrella of technology.

EusoffWorks has a hand in almost every major hall activity – if there is an event it is almost certain that we would be present capturing high definition digital memories or might even have a hand in creating the beautiful designs and websites. Behind all the action, we have a team of capable IT specialists that support the function of the other wings and create applications that streamlines and make administering Eusoff Hall easier. One such application would be the Eusoff Hall Database (EHDB) which help JCRC keep track of all the CCA points of the residents in hall.

Supporting the hall in all its events is no easy task, definitely not in a hall that bustles with activities all year round. We need not only the sheer numbers but also the quality in our members as it requires discipline and the attitude to learn to be good at what we do. That is the reason why we handpick all our members and this year we had close to a hundred members. It is with the dedication of all our members that we can produce all the work we have. I hope that you all have learnt and enjoyed yourself in the last year. I am sure that we all have fond memories camping in the EusoffWorks room rushing our various projects and also the times where we just slacked in there just talking rubbish.

A special thank you everyone in the EusoffWorks Core Team. Without your sacrifice and leadership, EusoffWorks would have been in a great mess. I hope you had an enriching journey, learning and growing from all the mistakes that we have made. It is no easy feat to have pulled off what we have. After all which other CCA can say that they are omnipresent as EusoffWorks in Eusoff Hall.

AudioWorks

Headed by Wan Wenli Simon

AudioWorks is the live technical support arm of Eusoff Hall located in the National University of Singapore. We specialize in providing quality sound and light support for events and activities within and outside of the campus. AudioWorks is working towards providing a comprehensive coverage of live events to give audiences a fresh experience every time they watch an event. We offer a series of audio related products for rental, from speakers, mixers, DJ Set to fog machines and intelligent lighting systems to meet diverse needs.

Although AudioWorks has a modest start as a hall technical support committee, thus far it has gained recognition beyond the walls of the Hall and has been engaged by numerous committees in NUS such as NUSSU SAVE, VNCNUS, TAS, NUS Rovers, NUS CAC and many more. With a solid track record and strong roots in the campus, AudioWorks aims to be the preferred sound provider in NUS while at the same time looking for opportunities to venture beyond the confines of the school.

This year, AudioWorks has completed numerous projects such as the NUS Hindu Society Deepavali Celebration at YIH open tent area, the 2011/2012 Inter-Hall Game Opening Ceremony as well as Closing Ceremony held at SRC and many more. Internally, we have successfully provided the best sound effects for Eusoff Hall annual cultural event --- Channel EH. Furthermore, AudioWorks also provided audio support for Eusoff Fiesta.

With all the efforts that AudioWorks committee and its productive and excellent members have put into, we strongly believe that AudioWorks has given its best effort to every single event. Despite all the challenges we face, against our future improvement, AudioWorks is on its way to becoming a more professional audio-supporting committee that gives you the best visual and acoustic enjoyment.

The CEMC is the backbone committee of all cultural events in Eusoff Hall. Headed by Pamela Yau, the CEMC is an important group that provides support, not just for cultural events in Eusoff, but also for cultural events outside of Eusoff.

In the academic year 11/12, the CEMC started with organizing the RAW Sessions in which cultural groups saw themselves given an opportunity to put up performances at the dining Hall during mealtimes. The RAW Sessions saw the performances put up by various Eusoff cultural groups.

On the same week, awareness in culture was brought to a culminated end on Channel [EH] where not only cultural groups of Eusoff performed but in which the various blocks as well as culturally talented individuals participated in. Channel [EH] provided not just a platform for cultural groups and talented individuals to showcase themselves but also a platform for the various blocks to come together, fostering intra-block relations.

Besides that, the CEMC had also coordinated the printing of T-Shirts of all cultural groups, galvanizing the cultural sections of Eusoff as one.

This relentless attitude of invigorating culture was also seen in Semester 2 in which the CEMC pledged and sent members to help in the KEVII organized event, Amplitude where all six halls participated in an inter-hall performance for the choirs and acapella groups. Members of CEMC helped out by doing backstage work for Amplitude.

Eusoff Green Committee (EGC) has been championing the green efforts for Eusoff Hall for the past three years and this year has been no different. As part of our bid to make sure we give back to the environment as much as we take from it, we sought to raise awareness among our fellow peers, as well as initiate projects to do some actual cleaning up of our environment.

This year we installed recycling bins in all 5 blocks, and to make sure people noticed and used them, we held an inter-block recycling competition. To spice things up, EGC also planned a concert over dinner with the theme "Greener Dinner", where residents were treated to an inter-block recycled materials fashion show and a pop quiz on environment-saving tips. Over that same dinner, we also had each block come up with green proposals for the hall to help them "greenify" the place we call a second home. Weekly videos were also screened at the dining hall, coupled with a biweekly newsletter to educate residents and heighten awareness on environment movements.

In addition, this year's EGC launched the inaugural Inter-Hall Beach Clean Up project, bringing together all the halls in NUS to do their part for nature at one of Singapore's beaches, and organised Earth Hour for the Hall, making the hall a part of the international green movement. Also, this year we submitted a proposal to install electric meters to monitor electricity use in Eusoff; the information we gain can be used to help come up with and initiate ways to help conserve energy and electricity in Hall. All in all, a fruitful year was spent by EGC towards helping Eusoff become a better place for Mother Earth.

Hall Promotion Board is a newly initiated committee this year whose main focus, as the name suggests, is to Promote the Hall. It consists of 15 highly driven and committed hall residents, who really love the hall. A team made up mainly of freshmen, with only 3 seniors in the committee, the Hall Promotion Board is in charge of 2 events - NUS Open House and Eusoff Exposure Camp.

As the head of the Hall Promotion Board, I would really like to take this opportunity to thank the whole team for constantly churning out new ideas for the events, and for being so ever co-operative and understanding.

Thank You Keevin and Sumitra for being such awesome Vice Heads and for leading the respective sub-committees.

To Andy, Shawn, Kaijie, Clareen, Shuling, Jiali, Julia, Natasya, Evangeline, Cheryl, Afiah, Clarissa: You guys have a great future ahead of you in Eusoff Hall, hope you have enjoyed yourself in this committee and more importantly, your stay in Eusoff Hall. I couldn't have asked for a better team.

May we promote the great name of Eusoff to all incoming freshmen!

The Special Projects Team (SPT) was set up with several objectives in mind. We felt that it was of great importance to promote a cohesive and engaging environment in Eusoff which we often call "our home away from home". In addition, we wanted to provide a platform where we can create opportunities for treasured Eusoffians to return and reunite with their fellow peers. This AY 11/12 was a long and challenging year for Eusoff with DP, Chingay, Convening, IHG and commitment to the community service. All these events are opportunities for us to showcase our sporting, organisational and cultural excellence and also our passion to care for the less fortunate. We have excelled and grown closer together as a hall with the bonds forged growing through those tough times in preparation for the events and activities.

SPT aims to provide an engaging environment and it began the year with the right tone by organising the first ever Eusoff night cycling event on 14th October 2011. Besides hunting down the famous supper-spots around, which definitely was the highlight of the event, we also enabled the participants to soak in the scenic view of the city skyscrapers at the Marina Bay Sands area; as well as to relive our childhood void-deck-soccer at the Kallang Cage and finally what better way to end the event than to enjoy the romantic sunrise with our fellow Eusoffians. It was truly a memorable event, and we are glad that despite depriving the participants of sleep, they thoroughly enjoyed themselves, evident from their resounding feedback.

The pageant bash held on the 15th of March 2012 @ The Butter Factory was the third and last bash of our academic year. Having it three times at the same venue wasn't enough to bring down the spirits and you, Eusoffians burnt the dance floor with your feisty moves and cool persona, living it up to the theme of this year's pageant Fire and Ice. The mood of the crowd was enlivened by the introduction of 5 charming young men and 5 gorgeous young ladies, all worthy to be crowned the next Eusoff King and Queen come the real contest during the Eusoff Fiesta on the 24th of March 2012. Block E's Wee Beng and Wen Jia took the titles away that night. This event allowed all of us to let our hair down and put our books aside for the night.

And finally, without a doubt, the biggest event for our team was the second edition of Eusoff Fiesta 11/12. An event, For Eusoffians, By Eusoffians. This tagline was plastered all over our publicity posters and banners because we felt that it would bring out our rationale of organizing the Fiesta and embrace the objectives of the event. It was time we did things for ourselves. It was time we celebrated us (Eusoffians), our achievements and our efforts. It was time for a reunion, to welcome home our cherished Eusoffians. It was time we showed our appreciation for one another as one big family. A wise man once said this,

"The measure of a man's success in life is not the money he's made. Because no amount of money can buy you the warmth and love of your family." I couldn't agree more with this because to me, Eusoff Fiesta means a lot. Not because I'm heading the Special Projects Team but because it serves to remind all of us that no matter how excellent and outstanding a hall can be, it will never be a home, without a family.

The event saw the participation of the entire hall with the 5 blocks, the IRC and even the SCRC and Hall Management setting up stalls selling mouth-watering food and drinks. The spread was further enhanced with the hiring of external vendors selling Ramly Burgers and bubble tea. When night fell, the Fire and Ice show was set to begin with performances put up by the 6 culture groups in Eusoff and finally the crowning of the new Eusoff King and Queen.

We hope that the academic year 11/12 was as exciting for you as it was for the Special Projects Team. We have definitely enjoyed our role in Eusoff and will be looking forward to enhance this role further. For now, we wish you Eusoffians all the best and hope that you have enjoyed our company.

From us, With Love,

Sports Management Committee (SMC)

Headed by Ivan Ngo

SMC, the Sports Management Committee was in charge of one of the main events this year, the Inter-Hall Games of 11/12.

Despite a slow start to garner members and sub committee heads, SMC was able to function adequately with the support of the hall residents.

From the design of the jerseys to the support of our sportsmen and women with logistics, drinks and first aid attention, our SMC was involved in every aspect of IHG, which Eusoff Hall eventually emerged champions.

Holding events such as the opening and closing ceremonies of this year's IHG helped to prepare and eventually provide a commemorative start and close to the Inter-Hall Games. The annual Sportsmen Bonding event also allowed for Eusoff sportsmen and women to know each other outside of their core sports.

Co-headed by Darren Twan and Melissa Chan, SMC was able to keep up to basic standards in terms of its quality of work and ability to allow sportsmen and women to focus on their sports in IHG, as well as provide information for the rest of the residents to support them in their matches and games.

Added with the task of managing captains as well as team managers, Darren and Melissa were able to sign off a successful IHG season with Eusoff Hall coming away with the 5th overall Champion title and the 7th Men's Champion title.

IHG Convening

Headed by Jonathan Ng

It is truly my honor to head the convening committee this year- a chance that only comes once every six years. We were faced with the extremely daunting challenge- to organize a perfect event for 3000 residents from 6 halls and to complete 29 sports in 6 weeks. We were however, unfazed by any obstacle that stood in our way. After concluding the entire IHG 11/12 season, I am now proud to say, WE DID IT!

In semester one, the Captains Meet and IHG Summit marked the symbolic start of IHG. The event was carried out in the most professional manner- no different from a real convention. Captains of the respective sports gathered around a table and would stop at nothing to fight for the best interest of their halls. Despite this, our conveners displayed professionalism and successfully mediated the discussion, leading to the desired closure of the event.

Semester two marked a dramatic crescendo for the convening committee. Every day, without fail, a team of conveners would head down to SRC to ensure the match of the day was smooth running. The conveners were given the uphill task of ensuring that everything under his or her care went well. This would imply that communication and coordination between the sub committees have to be flawless, as a breakdown in one medium would result in a complete flop on the calendar. Thankfully, our committee had responsible and accountable members, attributing to the success of the IHG 11/12 season.

To conclude, it has indeed, been an honor working with each and every one of you in this committee. I would like to thank all my conveners, for staying by me, and holding me through this tumultuous journey. Thank you all for the consistent effort and dedication displayed over the past 7 months. Your hard work and effort has paid off through the thorough success of IHG 11/12. Every single one of you excelled as individuals and I certainly hope to continue seeing you shine. Congratulations. We have not only successfully convened IHG 11/12 but have also, emerged as the deserving champions. What a sweet victory.

With Pride, We Play.

I have come to accept the feeling of not knowing where I am going. And I have trained myself to love it.

Because it is only when we are suspended in mid-air with no landing in sight, that we force our wings to unravel and alas begin our flight. And as we fly, we still may not know where we are going to. But the miracle is in the unfolding of the wings. You may not know where you're going, but you know that so long as you spread your wings, the winds will carry you.

A Block is quite a quiet block, but that does not mean there is nothing to do. I think challenges arise with any type of communal living, be it issues of keeping common areas clean and hygienic, to sharing property! One of the largest challenges we faced was the issue of food being stolen from the common fridge! But a sign threatening to do away with the fridge, written in red with lots of exclamation marks seems to have curbed that problem,

Residents of A Block are a mixture of seniors and freshies, who seem to get along nicely but at the same time enjoy their quiet time. In the first semester of this academic year our block was involved in IBG, night cycling and Channel EH (talent show). In the second semester we set up a stall to sell food at Eusoff Fiesta, organized by the Special Projects Team, and as tradition has it, we also participated in the pageant.

I would like to thank my level heads for stepping up and helping me out. I really appreciate all your help guys and I hope you have enjoyed being in A Block!

To be honest, I had never expected to be the Block Head but of course, being the most handsome senior in the block, it was sort of natural? Just kidding. Being the block head is not easy actually. The thing that you'll be dealing with most of the time would be complaints, like how some Eusoffians were being noisy or the washing machine has stopped working, things like that. But still, it was a fun. I got know more people, had some great suppers and the experience of helping B Block win the Eusoff Talent competition again was definitely worth it!

Graduating Seniors

"I am coming to the end of my university life and thanks to Eusoff Hall, I've had the best 4 years of my life so far. There were so many ups and downs in the whole Eusoff journey. But whenever I look back, I always gratefully cherish all those moments. I am warm-hearted to be a Eusoffian who belongs to a big family. Yes, it is truly "home"; where I met awesome friends and went through exciting challenges and wonderful opportunities I myself had never imagined before. Every piece in this colorful picture helps me discover different aspects of myself and nurtures me to become a better person today. I shall bring along these memories and friendship with me for the rest of my life. Down the road, whenever I come back, I know there will be the same Eusoff Hall that I always treasure.

So if you ask me what Eusoff Hall means? Hmm, let's see.

E: excellence
U: uniqueness
S: splendor
O: optimism
F: fun
F: fearlessness
H: harmony
A: authenticity
L: loving
L: long-lasting

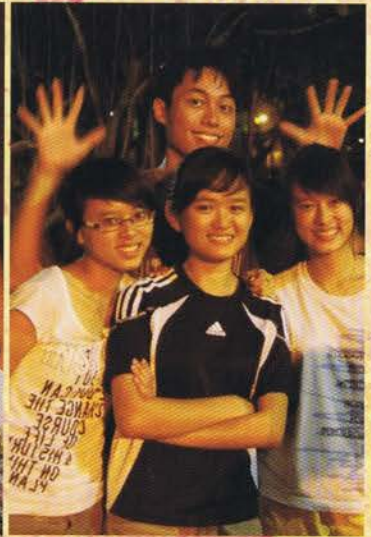

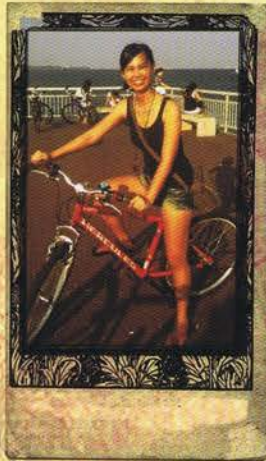

Or Eusoff Hall! Simply that way :)

Thank you.

Dear Eusoff,

Words can't describe my journey in Eusoff. I learnt a lot here, met wonderful people and amazing friends. I will always treasure my memories here and hope that I can continue to be a part of Eusoff in some way. Thank you for being a home to me.

The one and only one CCA I joined in hall was the tennis team and it was totally worth it. I've been in the team for 4 years. Almost all the friends I made in hall were because of the team. Each time I played in the IHG, I felt a strong sense of belonging. Thank you very much for giving me these great memories!

Well writer's block always gets the better of me so I am going to keep it short. Eusoff- its been real! I can only say hanging out late night on A4 with the rest of the 'quiet' bunch will be something I'll miss. Plenty of good memories from hall to make NUS an overall good experience. To those of you who have a few more years in hall, make the best of it!

Mishaal Ismeer

Eusoff has given me the opportunity to try all sorts of things that I wouldn't have tried and meet all the people I wouldn't have met. Can't imagine what my university life would have been like without Eusoff. Gonna miss my life here! <3

- Xiaoxuan, D3

Like everyone I too had a great time in Eusoff Hall. I can safely say that I wouldn't have my university life any other way. I would say Eusoff Hall has been a great place for calculated stupidity and embarrassment, while also working hard for things that may seem of little importance. I don't mean to undermine the activities which at times do boost self-esteem and help us meet more people, but I wonder if I will remember Eusoff for these 'activities'. I will probably remember Eusoff for amazingly friendly people, the really helpful staff, occasional dinners with good food (I kid, food here is always good!), people shouting randomly, and of course people who actually care for each other and for all the hall events etc. It was fun playing a part in the different things happening around and I definitely met some really interesting people here. I will miss it.

It has been an amazing four years in Eusoff Hall filled with memories all the way from year 1, including the late night suppers, midnight meetings and surprise birthday parties. I have met the closest of my friends here who have made life in Eusoff so much more memorable. To the current Eusoffians, make the most of your time in Eusoff and to the graduating seniors, I would like to wish you the very best in your life.

Cheers,

My Eusoff Hall life is one of my life changing experience. It has been a home away from home for 3 years and in these years I have learned so much I don't know where to start. Eusoff brought back my passion in dancing, good friends especially seniors whom I can rely on, all the different CCAs gave me not only valuable skills and knowledge but people skills as well (I can be quite shy you see) and of course a Korean boyfriend! If I know one thing, its that I'll always be back to this place time and time again as the spirit has become a strong part of me. :P
